

SPRING HATS

Durable hats are not always stylish. And stylish hats are not always durable. Skillful hatters are not always conscientious. Neither are conscientious hatters always skillful. It takes quite a combination of things to produce the kind of hats that you ought to have. New York and Philadelphia's best hatters make our hats. They are conscientious enough to make durable hats. And skillful enough to make stylish hats such as—

The Zenith Derby at $2.50 The Stetson Derby at $4

DUEL OCCURS SATURDAY

Count Boni de Castellane Will Face the Bullets of the Editor of the Figaro at Twenty-Five Paces.

Paris, March 15.—The seconds of Count Boni de Castellane and M. de Roday met today and decided that the duel is to take place tomorrow morning. Two shots will be exchanged at twenty-five paces. M. Perivier, one of M. de Roday's seconds, who is co-manager of the Figaro, in an interview today, declared that the duel would be absolutely private. He said: "I will not tolerate the presence of a stranger. If otherwise I will retire from the field. In my opinion it is improper to permit persons attracted by unhealthy curiosity to be present at a duel in which two men are staking their lives."

JOHNSON.

Philadelphia Lawyer Said to Have Been Offered Portfolio.

Philadelphia, March 15.—A report is in circulation in this city that John G. Johnson, a leading member of the Philadelphia bar, and one of the most prominent lawyers in this country, has been offered the portfolio of attorney general in President McKinley's cabinet, to succeed Attorney General Briggs. When asked today by a reporter for the Associated Press if he had been offered the portfolio, Mr. Johnson said: "If I had been offered such a position in President McKinley's cabinet I would not say so. I do not want my refusal to answer the question, however, to be construed as a denial that the position has been offered me. I refuse to either confirm or deny the report."

GLOBE TOUR.

Duke and Duchess of York Start on Their Trip.

London, March 15.—The duke and duchess of Cornwall and York started today afternoon, on the first stage of their tour of the four quarters of the globe. King Edward, Queen Alexandra and other members of the royal family accompanied the travelers to Portsmouth, whence the steamer Opbit, with the duke and duchess on board, will sail tomorrow. The departure of the king and queen from Marlborough house was accompanied by a semi-state ceremonial. His majesty was in full naval uniform and his carriage was escorted by a detachment of Life Guards. The duke and duchess drove to the railroad station quietly from "St. James" palace. Small gatherings along the route cheered the royal personages.

INDEMNITY Prevents an Agreement of Powers on China. Situation as Seen In the German Reichstag.

Berlin, March 15.—The debate on the supplementary estimates for China in the reichstag today furnished the opportunity for the statement from the chancellor. In anticipation of something interesting occurring, both the floor of the house and the galleries were filled. The chancellor began by declaring that the negotiations on the China question were making slow progress. Although it had not been easy to secure an agreement owing to the naturally conflicting interests of the different governments, it had been possible to draw up a reasonable peace program. The harmony of the powers thus far had been preserved, and hope was entertained that the feeling would suffice to overcome the differences of opinion which had lately become apparent in regard to the matters in China. The chancellor traced the deliberations of the powers following their negotiations had been entered upon with China. Referring to the punishment inflicted on the marauders as a result of Boxer atrocities, the chancellor declared that

THEIR HONOR SATISFIED

The Deroulede-Buffet Duel Was Frustrated By Swiss Officials and the Seconds Declare the Incident Closed.

Lausanne, Switzerland, March 15.—The duel which had been arranged to take place today between M. Paul Deroulede and M. Andre Buffet, growing out of the controversy over the action of the royalists at the time of the coup d'etat planned by M. Deroulede and M. Marcel Habert, on the occasion of the funeral of the late President Faure in 1899, has been abandoned in consequence of the authorities having issued a decree expelling M. Deroulede from Switzerland. The seconds thereupon decided that it was impossible to avoid intervention, and the origin of the quarrel was political, as the honor of the principals was not concerned.

Detectives shadowed MM. Buffet and Deroulede and their seconds throughout last evening, not allowing them for an instant. A meeting of the seconds was held at midnight and they drew up the following into the sanctuary of the hotel. IS FATALLY SHOT BY A PRISONER

Deputy Sheriff Magie Is Desperately Wounded By Jacob Goldstein at Court House.

Deputy Sheriff Frank Magie was fatally shot at 2:30 this afternoon by a desperate prisoner named Joseph Goldstein. The man had just been convicted of grand larceny and was being taken from the court house back to the county jail. At the rear door of the court house Goldstein, instead of turning over toward the jail, made a break toward Sixth avenue east. Deputy Magie knocked him down and in the fight that followed, Goldstein pulled a gun and shot the deputy through the hand. Magie sprang up in pain and the prisoner shot him through the head, the bullet entering the forehead and passing upward.

Deputy Sheriff Edward Chalk had suspected trouble with Goldstein and when Magie led him out of the court room, he followed. He jumped into the fight and a third shot from the desperate man's revolver cut across his abdomen, cutting a hole in the vest.

Magie was simply spouting blood from the terrible wound in his head, but even with that he got up and started after Goldstein, who by this time was running down Sixth avenue. The plucky deputy only got a few steps, falling in a pool of blood. Deputy Chalk was without a revolver and he dashed back into the sheriff's office yelling for a gun. Deputy Sheriff Newton Randall asked him what the trouble was and on being told that Magie had been "killed," he and Sheriff Sargent and Deputy Sheriff William Randall grabbed up their guns and started after the fleeing prisoner.

Goldstein, seeing that he was being pursued, brought his gun into play again firing three shots at New Randall. A running fight followed. The sheriff's force firing a fusillade after the prisoner, who turned down Fourth avenue east and down to the Lake front. Randall was rapidly gaining on him and so was Sheriff Sargent. A bullet from the latter's revolver went so close to Goldstein's head that he dropped down behind a pile of boards and threw his revolver into the air and stuck his hands up where the sheriff's force could see that he was willing to surrender.

He was taken back to the county jail and placed in a dungeon.

Deputy Magie was picked up by persons that heard the shooting and carried back into the sheriff's office. He bled so profusely that the entire floor of the room seemed to be one pool of blood.

Dr. William H. Magie, brother of the wounded deputy, was summoned hastily and took him to St. Mary's hospital, a few blocks away, where he was immediately placed on the operating table and the surgeons began dressing his wounds, in faint hope that they might save his life, which at 3 o'clock was extremely doubtful.

No person seems to know where Goldstein got the revolver, but there is every indication that the revolver and $3 in money was handed to the prisoner by some unknown person, as he was coming down the stairway from the court room.

It is reported that it was handed to him by a woman, who has been in the court room frequently during the trial. Joseph Goldstein is one of the most desperate and dangerous criminals that has ever been taken in custody in this city. Last fall he robbed a gambling house at Virginia of $300 and got away to Hibbing, where the proprietor of the house tracked him. He was at the bar of a saloon treating a large crowd when the Virginia man entered. Goldstein saw him in a twinkling, and pulling a gun, he held the entire crowd while he backed out of the door and made his escape, only to be captured on the Bowery in this city some weeks later by Detective Troyer.

He is also supposed to have blown open a safe at Mountain Iron last fall, but this was never proven against him. He served sixty days in the county jail for stealing the money at Virginia and when released was frequently seen hanging around the Bowery and the detectives finally fixed the robbery of the saloon of Alex Steele on him. Some cigars were stolen and Goldstein told them over to a colored woman in Superior and said that a man named McCarthy had sent them. Detective Troyer caught Goldstein and later caught McCarthy at Proctorokott.

The would-be murderer has been known here as Frank Baker, or "Blackie Baker," but his real name is Joseph Goldstein and he has the reputation of being a clever pickpocket and an all-round desperate criminal. He has served time in Toronto, Boston and Albany. When Sheriff Sargent and Deputy Sheriffs Newton Randall and William Randall were bringing the man back up the hill there were threats of lynching and the sheriffs hustled the man into the jail and down to the dungeon in a hurry.

At 3:30 p. m. a telephone message from St. Mary's hospital said that Mr. Magie is still alive, and that Dr. Magie and Dr. Hargy are still working over him in the operating room.

Frank Baker, alias Joseph Goldstein, was on trial in district court this morning on a charge of attempting to commit grand larceny in the first degree, and he was quite astonished when County Attorney McClintock suggested a long record of crime and asked him if he could lay claim to it. "Blackie" modestly acknowledged that some of it belonged to him, but as to the rest of it he found his memory faulty, and he could not recall the facts.

Whatever his name may be, this man is accused of trying to steal $4 from the person of one Robert Evans in a Bowery saloon Feb. 5. The testimony of the witnesses for the state was that several of them saw Baker trying to get his hand into Evans' trousers pocket in the saloon, and that later, on in the hall, they found Evans on the floor with a hand in his pocket. The hand belonged to Baker, they said, and William Hutchinson, a track driver, pulled it out. Baker then drew a gun and threatened to blow Hutchinson's brains out, the witnesses said.

A little later Baker hit Hutchinson while they were in front of the saloon, and he is also under indictment on a charge of assault in the second degree for this. Baker's story when he got on the stand was rather smooth. He said that he made Evans' acquaintance that night, and that he saw the bartender, who was one of the state's witnesses, short-changing him, so he tried to get him out and put him to bed. Out in the hall Evans fell down, he was so drunk, in 1900 he was trying to pick him up, the witnesses came out. He said he used no gun because he had none.

On the witness stand, County Attorney McClintock pulled out a piece of paper and confronted the prisoner with a long list of convictions for various offenses and asked Baker if he had been convicted of any of these cases. Baker reluctantly admitted several convictions and serving several sentences, but he could not remember the rest.

He said that he was the man that held up a Virginia gambling house for $300, though he admitted that he was convicted of petit larceny on the range. When Baker's trial was begun yesterday afternoon he said that the name of "Frank Baker" under which he was indicted, was not his true name, but for "private reasons" he refused to give his true name. In addressing the jury, County Attorney McClintock said his true name is Joseph Goldstein. Miller & Adams defended Baker. Shortly before noon Mr. McClintock began his address to the jury, and the case went to the jury this afternoon.

ANSWERED.

Lord Wolseley Replies to Lord Lansdowne's Attack.

London, March 15.—The house of lords was unusually crowded today in anticipation of the reply of Lord Wolseley, the former commander-in-chief, to the criticism of the former war secretary, Lord Lansdowne, now secretary for foreign affairs. The galleries were full of people. Lord Wolseley, in his opening remarks, said he regretted being compelled to discuss a personal matter, but he could not pass unchallenged the severe comments of Lord Lansdowne on the manner in which he had performed the duties of commander-in-chief. Lord Lansdowne's personalities were evidently premeditated. His imputations were grave and it almost seemed as if the personal attack was made in order to divert attention from the question at issue and thrown upon the commander-in-chief the blame for the mistakes made by the government. Until the recent debate, he had never had reason to suppose that he did not possess the full confidence of Lord Lansdowne and the cabinet. Early in 1900 circumstances occurred which left him no alternative but to resign, which he did. If he did not possess the cabinet's confidence, that was an opportunity which might have legitimately been used to appoint another commander-in-chief.

Lord Wolseley then proceeded to refute the specific charges launched by Lord Lansdowne. He said he had made every effort to improve the auxiliary forces, which were twenty-five miles in advance of Ladysmith. He had never allowed Ladysmith and its surrounding hills to be untenable. Lord Wolseley admitted that, in common with all the other authorities, he had under estimated the fighting power of the individual Boer.

STRIKE A BONANZA

Duluthians and Others Get Rich Thing In Arizona.

Have Copper Property Adjoining Famous Copper Queen.

Struck Lode of That Mine at 886 Feet.

There are some men in Duluth and some in Michigan who think they have the richest thing in the line of a mining proposition that has been found in this country for a long time and a number of mining men and capitalists who have been let into the thing are of the same opinion.

The Duluth man most prominently known who is in the deal is Charles D'Auremont, Jr., and it looks as though Duluth's ex-mayor would clean up a big fortune out of it. He will not be the only Duluthian, however, who will share in the venture, for there are a number of others. Thomas F. Cole, general manager of the Oliver Mining company, is the leading spirit in the company and there are a number of mining men of the copper country in Michigan who are in it.

The bonanza is a copper proposition in Arizona. More than a year ago, the Michigan and Duluth men became interested in eleven claims in Arizona, adjoining the famous Copper Queen mine. This mine is owned by private parties in New York and is known to have paid a net profit of $2,000,000 for several years. Work was begun in exploring the properties in November, 1899, and a vertical shaft was sunk 536 feet through almost solid limestone. This was no more than the management expected, however, for it was known that this would be.

Christmas came the news that an ore body eighteen feet through had been penetrated. This showed an average of better than 5 per cent of copper with traces of silver and gold. Ever since then news has been coming thick and fast, telling of the great richness of the property and of the fact that the Copper Queen lode has been struck and that a mine equaling that in richness has been opened by the prospectors.

Thomas F. Cole, who is a mining man of wide and varied experience went down himself a short time ago and since he has returned he has been busy with the rich condition which he found. One of the eleven claims, the first Mac, directly adjoins the Spray and Keystone claims of the property and the shaft which has struck the lode and is already in copper ore that yields 1 per cent of copper. It is gold and two ounces of silver. It can be mined and smelted for 2 per cent of copper, leaving the balance and the gold and silver as profit.

An opinion has been given on the property, and Mr. Cole is known to be very conservative, that the mine has already seen enough ore to be blocked to yield $2,500,000.

The men who originally interested themselves in this venture have reorganized under the name of the Calumet and Arizona Mining company, with main offices at Calumet, Mich., and a branch office at Duluth, Arizona, which is the little town near the mine. The company is organized under the laws of Arizona with a capital of $2,500,000 in shares of $10 each. Of this amount $500 shares is to remain in the treasury, 10,000 will go to pay for the property, and the balance will be sold at $10 a share, the par value. There is a great scramble for the stock and it will be subscribed for twice over. Some of it is being advertised for sale, and none of it is to be had in that way. In fact it is very exclusive stuff.

The company, as its directors the following: Charles Briggs, president; J. S. Dymock, vice president; J. S. Dymock, treasurer; and Gordon R. Campbell, secretary and counsel.

A number of the Oliver-Carnegie people at Pittsburg are in the deal and are represented by Mr. Cole and Mr. Tenor.

Hotel Fire Causes Loss of One Life.

Three Killed In a Head End Collision.

Washington, March 15.—Early today electric light wires started a fire in the Merchants' hotel, 455 Pennsylvania avenue, which spread rapidly, causing panic among the guests, several of whom jumped from the windows. One person was killed and four severely injured.

The dead: L. F. HENRY, 48 years old, suffocated. The injured: Stephen Collins, proprietor of the hotel, both legs badly burned, deep burn in neck, burned about face and arms, condition serious; W. B. Catchings, of Kentucky, back sprained, legs and right side bruised, injuries caused by jumping from window; John Scanlan, head cut by jumping from window; W. B. Ketchum, of Connecticut, bruised by falling down stairs.

Firemen easily extinguished the flames. The damage to the building was small.

Clay Switch, Ky., March 15.—In a head-end collision between freight trains today on the Illinois Central railroad, three men were instantly killed and three fatally injured. The dead are: ENGINEER DICKEY, of Paducah; FIREMAN NEWMAN, of Newbern, Tenn.; FIREMAN HAMLETT, of Fulton, Ky.

Injured: Engineer Bornscheln, of Paducah; Engineer Hazelton, Brake-man Roberts (colored).

A misunderstanding of orders is said to have caused the wreck. The trains ran together when going at full speed. Both engines were wrecked and all the men riding thereon were either killed or injured.

ONE MUST BE SCAPEGOAT

Lord Wolseley and Lord Lansdowne Are Unwilling to Be Censured For Miscalculations in Boer War Estimates.

New York, March 15.—A dispatch to the Tribune from London says: Lord Wolseley's speech in the house of lords will be his last word in the conduct of the South African war, since he will start next week on his mission as a special ambassador to announce the death of Queen Victoria. When the duke of Bedford was moved to make critical remarks on the military administration, Lord Wolseley took part in the debate with the air of a candid friend who was forced to say something against his will. This debate exposed him to an unexpected attack from Lord Lansdowne, and Lord Wolseley came out as some of the British generals did from a Boer ambuscade. He is now compelled in self-defense to return to the subject and to reply to Lord Lansdowne's charges. He has been consulting with Lord Rosbery and other friends, and may cause the government much annoyance.

At the outbreak of the war the intelligence department was held responsible for miscalculations regarding the Boer resources, but the reports now in print prove that it was not at fault. Lord Wolseley and Lansdowne and Mr. Chamberlain and the entire cabinet was caught in a Boer ambush, and should be held jointly responsible for lack of judgment in underestimating the magnitude of the military operations in South Africa. Neither Lord Wolseley nor Lord Lansdowne wishes to be the scapegoat.

HIS MIND GAVE WAY.
Doctor's Hard Work Results In Insanity.

Chicago, March 15.—After working all night in an endeavor to perfect a remedy on which he had been experimenting for years, Dr. T. V. Roy, 819 Fulton street, lost his mind. Running to his wife he exclaimed: "I've got it! I've got it! My name will be famous!"

The wild child in his eyes told the woman that her husband was not in his right mind, and she hurried for some time and then returned. Roy, who was now in a state of delirium, threatened violence. Mrs. Roy succeeded in getting her husband and called the police. Dr. Roy is now at the detention hospital.

Dr. Roy is 32 years old, and was born in Bombay, India. He was graduated from college in that country twenty-seven years ago, and shortly after came to the United States. He traveled for some time and then came to Chicago. He made a specialty of lung diseases, and cherished the hope that he might perfect a remedy which would cure tuberculosis. His recovery is doubtful.

ASK HIM TO RESIGN.
Senator McLaurin May Be Appointed Judge.

Charleston, S. C., March 15.—Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, who has quit the Democratic party, is severely criticized by the press and Democratic leaders in this state, and there is a general cry for him to resign at once. His action is taken to mean that he will not be a candidate for re-election next year, and some of his personal friends say that he will be tendered a federal judgeship by the president.

SEARCH FOR WINDWARD.
Peary Arctic Club to Send Relief Expedition.

New York, March 15.—It now seems more than likely that another Arctic expedition will soon be sent out to find the Windward, from which nothing has been heard since she sailed with Mrs. and Miss Peary on board from Godhavn, in North Greenland, on Aug. 20, 1899, in search of Lieut. Peary. The course was practically decided upon at the annual meeting of the Peary Arctic club.

KILLS MARRIAGE BUSINESS.
Southwestern Michigan Is Fighting the Measure.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 15.—The whole of southwestern Michigan has joined with St. Joseph in its fight on the marriage bill, which requires a five days' residence in the state for the issuance of a license. It will take away the last Green from Chicago, just as by similar legislation in Wisconsin, Milwaukee stopped being the Mecca for Chicago couples bent on spontaneous matrimony.

Ordinance Against Chimney Fire Calls to Come Up.

Its Passage Has Been Twice Defeated Before Now.

Generally More Dangerous to Department Than to Property.

An ordinance may shortly be introduced in the council making it a misdemeanor for any person to pull a fire alarm box on account of a chimney fire. At such times the department is of no practical value, and it was on one of these occasions a few years ago, that two firemen were killed and two others seriously injured, while valuable fire fighting apparatus was greatly damaged.

Just about half the alarms that have been sent in this winter were on account of chimney fires, and the department has been so busy fighting these fires that it has been unable to attend to the many other calls for fire.

The ordinance which would make it a misdemeanor to pull a fire alarm box on account of a chimney fire, is the subject of the ordinance which is now being introduced in the council.

The present council seems to take a more practical view of the situation and the ordinance which will be introduced will be very stringent in character, and will probably be a copy of the ordinance of similar ordinances now in force throughout the city.

The board of fire commissioners in its annual report says that unless chimney fires are put under control, the department will be unable to attend to the many other calls for fire.

FOOLISH.

Another Weak Attempt at Blackmailing Fails.

Anaconda, Mont., March 15.—A special to the Standard from Butte says: The police officials have made public the details of an attempt to blackmail Charles W. Clark, son of Senator W. A. Clark, out of $5000. Mr. Clark a few days ago received a letter directing him to send money in small bills to "W. J. Butte postoffice. The blackmailer admitted significantly that he was a dead shut.

The letter was turned over to the postoffice authorities. The general delivery window was watched for several days and finally a small box called for a package addressed to "W. J." He was arrested and questioned. He said a masked man had given him twenty-five cents to call for the package. He proved his innocent complicity. The blackmailer is still at large.

INDIA'S POPULATION. The Native States Show Excessive Declines.

Catcutta, March 15.—Complete census returns give the population of India as 291,000,000, an increase in last decade of 7,000,000. Deducting the population of British India, the native states show a decline of 1,400,000, a net increase of only 1.4 per cent, which is due to improved census methods.

Thus, the population is for the first time stationary. Owing to two famines, mortality from disease and a great decline in the birth rate the native states show excessive declines. These results were quite unexpected.

CLAIMS HER SHARE. Secret Wife Wants Part of Converse Estate.

Norwich, Conn., March 15.—By the death of Charles A. Converse, the wealthy retired manufacturer and writer of this city, another contest for a big Connecticut estate will probably be commenced. Following closely upon the shock at the death of his son, Edward Converse, in November last, came the revelations of a romantic scandal concerning which the aged father had known nothing. Young Converse, who had some years since married a Norwegian woman, had secretly obtained a Dakota divorce from her, and Miss Mamie Beers, a trained nurse of South Norwalk, announced that she was the widow of the young man by a second and secret marriage.

Chagrined at the action of his son, which had been kept from him, the old man refused to recognize his second wife. It is believed that grief and worry hastened his death.

After the marriage of young Converse to Miss Beers she went to live as housekeeper with Judge Alfred Austin, of South Norwalk, whose deceased daughter was a daughter of Col. Converse. Col. Converse is believed to have left from $125,000 to $250,000. The widow of young Converse will claim her share in the estate.

Years of suffering relieved in a night. Tching pills yield at once to the curative properties of Doan's Ointment. Never fails. At any drug store, 50 cents.

NEW LINE TALKED OF

Withdrawal of Northern Passenger Boats Presents a Chance.

Anchor Line Has More Business Than It Can Handle.

The Anchor People May Build a New Steamship.

The Detroit News publishes the following gossip about the probability of a new passenger steamship line between Duluth and Buffalo, consequent on the withdrawal of the North West and the North Land from the Duluth route:

"The probability that the Northern Steamship company will not run their passenger boats to Duluth this coming season and the fact that the Anchor line boats, India, China and Japan, are yearly turning away people who want to make this up-lake trip simply because they have no room for them, has caused some of the local passenger vesselmen to talk about the chance there is for a good steamboat line from Buffalo, Cleveland or Detroit to Duluth and other Lake Superior ports.

"Said one vesselman this morning: 'If the Northern Steamship company cut out Duluth this summer, the Anchor line will simply have a clinch on the business of the upper lake trade and if they do not build an up-to-date boat and make some attempt to accommodate tourists, it won't be the fault of the managers of the line.'

"Everybody knows that the tourist trade of Lake Superior is not to be regarded lightly, and the business of the Northern Steamship line and the Anchor line last year is proof enough for that. The Anchor line has been unable to accommodate the crowds.

"It seems to me then that one of two things must happen this season. Either the Anchor line people intend to build a new boat or some new line will spring up and get some of this tourist business."

Local Agent Bourke, of the Anchor line, stated this morning that it was true that the line has been doing about all the passenger business that its boats can do and he admitted that many people had to be turned away.

"It is entirely probable that the Anchor line will build a new boat, though when I am unable to state positively. It may be a couple of years yet, but it will certainly come in the end. The three boats, the Japan, India and China, are under way and will be every summer and we find it impossible to keep up with the demand."

The head office of the Anchor line is in Buffalo, but it is not thought the exposition will in any way interfere with this year's business.

Cleveland, Ohio, March 15.—From the frozen gold fields of the North, Rev. E. A. George, pastor of Trinity Congregational church of this city, will try to get the gold to pay off the debt of his church. He will be a member of the Good Enough Mining company's expedition, which is to start May 1. He hopes to return with enough gold to pay off the $15,000 debt on his church. The mines are forty-five miles from Cape Nome.

Y., March 15.—In a message to the legislature today Governor Odell recommends a continuation of the work begun several years ago of deepening the state canals to nine feet and lengthening the locks. SUPERIOR WON OUT

Company A of Duluth Is Defeated at Indoor Baseball.

Lost By Poor Batting In First Three Innings.

Numerous Errors By Duluth Team Were Also Costly.

In the hottest indoor baseball game which has been seen here this season, Company A of Superior, got what it has been trying for all season and won from Company A of Duluth, by a score of 11 to 10. The Duluth boys undoubtedly owe their defeat to the poor batting work which they did in the first three innings, and their slowness in getting into the game as regards fielding, the Superiors making five runs the first time they came to the bat on account of the numerous errors of the home team, who were completely at sea. However, the home lads soon braced up and had it not been for that unfortunate first inning they would have undoubtedly won the game, as their later work completely outdistanced that of their opponents.

The rooting was very pronounced and when at the end of the ninth inning, with Duluth at the bat, two men on bases, and two outs, Dash, who was on third, made a dive for home, sliding over half the way, and was put out, had it not been for the unfortunate number of errors.

McKenna, for Duluth, made three fly catches, one of which was an exceedingly pretty left hander. Schipper, who pitched in place of LaMonte, did well. Everington's and Condon's fielding were good, and the work of Dash and Anderson, after that first fatal inning, was very good. For Company A, the work of E. Duff, Lawton, and C. Harris was the feature.

After the game dancing was enjoyed to the music of Blatner's orchestra.

Following is the score:

REFUSE LIBRARY. Carnegie's Gift Will Not Be Accepted.

Easton, Pa., March 15.—The Eastern board of school controllers last night refused to increase the tax rate one-half cent for the maintenance of a public library, thereby refusing the offer of Andrew Carnegie to give the town $50,000, providing the city would appropriate $200 for the maintenance of the library.

Washington, March 15.—The president today made the following appointments: Interior—Albert E. Rose, North Dakota, to be receiver of public moneys at St. Michaels, Alaska.

AT WEST DULUTH

During the past few days some of the property owners and real estate agents at West Duluth have been contending with all the discussion of the pay-lag matter here, an impression has been given from certain people that this part of the city is a "dead one," that property is depreciating in value, houses being vacated, etc. Such, it is claimed, is not the case, but the indications are safe to be good for the coming year in building and real estate circles. There is now building a new church, and yesterday Charles Korth of this place, let the contract to Emil Zauff to build a fine 2-story brick hotel, with a basement, on Fifty-first avenue west, within half a block of the Duluth Match company's plant. The new hotel is to be modern in equipment, with a structure 30 by 75 feet in dimensions, and will cost in the neighborhood of $4000. Mr. Korth has in previous seasons talked of building a hotel on his property, but he believes that the indications point to the present season as the best in which to build. The new building will be close to the match factory and will be completed by the time the factory starts operation, as work on it will begin immediately. Besides several other minor building operations proposed, there has been quite a movement of people toward West Duluth from other parts of the city, to rent houses this spring. The real estate agents that have property to rent are, of course, out after the business, and these claim that some of the renters say they can do as well or better in the matter of rent at West Duluth as in any other part of the city. This morning Peter Davis and E. L. Hughes, who have been living in the vicinity of Twenty-sixth avenue west, are moving their families to Fifty-ninth and Ramsey.

Mr. Pierce says that the camps in the vicinity of Brule are breaking up, logging will soon cease along the Brule river. He says that ten inches of snow fell on the level in that vicinity on Monday night and Tuesday.

A pleasant social function was a reception tendered Mrs. A. A. Armstrong at her home on Central avenue last evening by the Ladies' Aid society of the Onondaga M. E. church and the ladies of the West Duluth branch of the W. C. T. U. The evening was most enjoyably spent in music and social amusements.

PLEADS GUILTY

Frederick Forrester of Warde Company Admits His Guilt.

Assault In Second Degree Was the Charge Pressed.

Maximum of Five Years Is the Punishment.

Frederick Forrester, the young actor from the Frederick Warde company who was arrested for a heinous offense while the company was here, pleaded guilty this morning in district court to a charge of assault in the second degree, the indictment for which was returned Wednesday morning.

The former indictment was for attempting an unbecomingly crime against nature, and the second one was for assault in the second degree, made with intent to commit the crime. Forrester consented to plead guilty to the assault charge. A demurrer was entered to the former indictment, but that proceeding will be dismissed, so it will not be necessary to decide the demurrer, though it is probable that it would have been overruled.

Under the first charge Forrester could have been sent to the penitentiary for two and a half to ten years, and under the one to which he pleaded guilty the maximum penalty is five years. He will be sentenced later.

ARE STRONG.

Condition of Onions In Michigan Street Market.

"It beats the hand how strong onions are," said a Michigan street commission man yesterday. He did not mean, however, that this hearty and succulent garden fruit is possessed of any more than the usual amount of the sort of strength that brings tears to the eyes of those who cut them up for the vegetable soup. He meant that the supply is getting rather low and the demand keeps up, so that the price, and not the vegetable itself, that is strong. They have been marked up another notch, and are now quoted at $4.00 to $4.50 per bushel instead of $3.50 to $4.00.

Butter still holds firm with no change in price, supplies are fair, but the demand is better, and there are yet no signs of further breaks in price.

Eggs took another slide this week, and are getting down to a basis of a cent apiece, though they are still several points above that. The market for eggs is not so strong as it was a few weeks ago, having been run up from 50¢ to 80¢.

Carrots have also been feeling the pinch, and are quoted at 50¢ to 60¢ instead of 40¢ to 50¢.

Poultry is also firm, and chickens have had the first advance in price for some time. Turkeys are quoted at 10¢ to 12¢, and are getting down to 10¢ to 12¢.

Meats are slightly easier, and dressed beef and pork loins have been marked off 1¢. The other meat prices are unchanged.

The strength in hay and feed continues, and another advance is noted. Hay has gone up 1¢, and hay has increased 50¢.

FLOODS.

St. Joseph and Other Cities Suffer From High Water.

St. Joseph, Mich., March 15.—The ice went out of the St. Joseph river last night and the result is a flood that has inundated the lowlands between this city and Benton Harbor, where many manufacturing concerns are, to a depth of several feet. The water is still rising rapidly and approaching very near to the tracks of the electric roads connecting the two cities. Many small buildings on the flats have been washed away and are floating down toward the lake.

Somerleyton seven miles up the river, where there are a score of fine cottages and a hotel, is in danger of being washed away. During the night water surrounded all the buildings and the caretakers were forced to take to rowboats. The meadows hereabouts are flooded to a depth of five feet.

DIFFERENCES

Of Serious Nature Exist In Portugal's Royal Aides.

Madrid, March 15.—Dispatches received here from Lisbon are strictly censored, but according to advices which have reached here the reports of serious differences in royal circles respecting the treatment of the religious congregations of Queen Marie Amelie is said to be charged at the attitude of King Charles. All the important circles are united, and it is added she has decided to go on a journey.

The Marquis de Pomal has resigned the post of grand master of the court ceremony of a decree of a decree of the king, unfavorable to the congregations. The king has accepted his resignation and has appointed his successor.

A large number of tickets have been sold, and the attendance will not be nearly so large as it was last year.

Makes Some Requests.

In the personal injury suit of Emma J. Wicks against Luther Mendenhall, as redict, the defendant has asked the district court for judgment notwithstanding the verdict. The court said that no negligence on the part of the company was shown and on the further ground of contributory negligence on the part of the plaintiff. The court said that no evidence asks for a new trial on the grounds that the verdict was not justified by the evidence and that the verdict is excessive and was given under the influence of passion and prejudice.

Guilty of Assault.

Yesterday afternoon the jury in the case against Almer Hamm found him guilty of assault by the second degree. Dr.

BROSIOUS. CHESS MATCH

Pennsylvania Congressman Dies From Stroke of Apoplexy.

Lancaster, Pa., March 16.—Congressman Marriot Brosius, chairman of the committee on banking and currency, died at 3 o'clock this morning from a stroke of apoplexy. He was stricken at 5 o'clock yesterday afternoon. He at once became unconscious and remained in that condition until death. At no time was there any hope entertained for his recovery.

Mr. Brosius was in good health up to noon yesterday. In the afternoon he insisted on carrying a trunk to the attic and bumped his head against a rafter. Although the accident caused him considerable pain, it was not regarded seriously.

The accident is now believed to have been mainly responsible for the stroke. He is survived by a widow and two daughters, the latter being Mrs. Herbert B. Cohn, of New York, and Mrs. Clement Biddle, of Pittsburgh.

Dates Arranged for International Contest By Cable.

London, March 16.—The British Chess club has at last settled the question of dates for the international cable chess match. The match between Great Britain and America will be played under the auspices of the British Chess club at London and the Brooklyn Chess club, at the Brooklyn academy of music, April 12 and 20, on ten boards.

The chess match between Oxford and Cambridge on the one side and Columbia, Harvard, Yale and Princeton on the other, will be played one week later. The London end of this contest will be under the auspices of the British Chess club, London, and the Knickerbocker Athletic club will be the scene of play in New York city.

ELAND RESIGNS.
The Hague, March 16.—The minister of war, M. Elard, has resigned in consequence of a recent antagonistic vote in the chamber. He was appointed July 21, 1897.

Two Houses of State Legislature Fighting.

The Clash Over the Reapportionment Bill.

St. Paul, March 16.—(Special to The Herald.)—After a fashion, the two houses are in a deadlock. They do not wish to be thought in that condition, but the fact is there just the same. Business is proceeding as usual and most measures are being given full and reasonably prompt consideration.

Reapportionment has, however, been in the air for over a week, this having been one deadlock. Its solution is thought to be close at hand, for on Thursday afternoon there was a further show of strength in the house and the decision in favor of making Redwood county stick to the new Seventh district was so emphatic that Mr. Larson withdrew further insistence on his pet idea that point at least will be insisted on by the house. That Wisconsin county may go back to the first district seems reasonably sure, and a compromise to that effect may be effected before the end of next week. In fact, it is now considered likely that such a compromise will be reached by Tuesday or Wednesday when the two houses once more get to working at the same time.

Another sort of a deadlock is on the matter of an early adjournment. The senate promptly adopted the Young resolution for adjournment April 5, but the house has refused to hold it up since by the house. There are members of the so-called lower house who think that the senators are a little slow in the transaction of business and this resolution seems to strike them as a good sort of a club with which to force the senators to do a livelier sort of legislative dance. In the upper house this suggestion is resented and an adjournment was yesterday taken over until Monday night by the senate.

In the meantime the matter has been held up since by the house. IS LYING IN STATE Remains of Former President Harrison at Indiana Capitol.

Thousands of People Gaze Upon Body of the Deceased.

Remains Were Escorted By the Entire State Militia.

Indianapolis, March 16.—Escorted by three regiments of infantry and a battalion of artillery—the full strength of the national guard of Indiana—the remains of former President Harrison, this noon, were taken from his late home on North Delaware street to the state capitol, where they will lie in state until 10 o'clock tonight, when they will be removed to the Indiana state house.

Fourteen days of gray skies, rain and gloom, gave way this morning to bright sunshine and no more beautiful weather could have been desired for the day in which the citizens of Indiana paid the last tribute of honor and respect to the man whom they deemed the foremost of their state, and one of the kind that comes only once in a generation.

The air was cold, but not uncomfortable. A gentle wind blew from the north, just strong enough to lift to their full length the thousands of long streamers of black with which the business houses and many of the residences were trimmed. The temperature, while perhaps somewhat cool for a long wait, was just what was needed by the thousands of people who lined the streets between the Harrison home and the capitol, as they waited for the arrival and passage of the funeral cortege. To the men in the line of march it was an ideal day.

Tomorrow, the ex-president will be lying in state in the capitol. He will be there until Monday, when he will be taken to the Indiana state house, where he will lie in state until Tuesday, when he will be taken to the Indiana state house, where he will lie in state until Wednesday, when he will be taken to the Indiana state house, where he will lie in state until Thursday, when he will be taken to the Indiana state house, where he will lie in state until Friday, when he will be taken to the Indiana state house, where he will lie in state until Saturday, when he will be taken to the Indiana state

THE DAKOTAS.

Results of Auction Sale Leave Nothing For Creditors.

NORTH DAKOTA.—Jameson—Attorney of this city, sold at public auction the stock of merchandise of Hazel Brothers, of Harvey, bankrupts. The sum of $1800 was realized, which was just enough to pay trustees, excepting for Hazel Brothers and expenses of lawyers, etc. The balance of the proceeds, amounting to $1400, was left nothing for creditors. The total indebtedness of Hazel Brothers is $1400. The stock was bought by Henry Kuriz, of Harvey, who will engage in business.

Lisbon.—The manner in which the Lisson cheese factory was carried on last year met with such cordial endorsement of the patrons that at a recent meeting of the directors in this vicinity it was decided to continue the factory this season under the same management.

Pargo.—Last year the shade trees suffered in North Dakota from the ravages of the caterpillar. To forestall damage this year the agricultural college is issuing a bulletin telling how to prevent damage. The article is short and concise and will do much toward saving the trees in the cities.

Mal.—S. J. Plimney, one of the earliest resident attorneys, and former register of the Pargo land office, will remove to Minn. and conduct a land office practice in the new section of the state.

South Dakota.—Eight thousand dollars in gold was brought to this city this week by the Spanish Mining company, of Colorado Springs, Col., which was a clean-up of fifteen days from the 2-ton cyanide plant at Ragged Top. The company makes two clean-ups a month, or about $1500. The ore only averages $8 per ton gold, but it is amenable to the cyanide process.

Schlitz
 Next to purity, the yeast used in brewing is of the utmost importance in beer. Perfect beer requires a perfect yeast, and rarely does a brewer find it. The Schlitz brewery introduced chemically pure yeast in America. It has made Schlitz beer the most palatable, healthful beer that is brewed.

The original mother cells form a priceless asset. All the yeast used in Schlitz beer forever will be developed from them. As a result Schlitz beer will never vary, and there'll never be another beer like Schlitz.

which is revolutionizing mining in the Black Hills. This company purchased nearly 40 acres of ground in the Russell Top district and has an unlimited amount of ore in sight. The plant is to be increased to 40 tons per day this season.

Hot Springs.—A little 4-year-old child of a family named McAdam, near Pringle, S. D., was drowned away from home Monday evening. A search was at once instituted in which the entire neighborhood was joined, but the child was not found until next day. It had wandered about four miles from home and was dead.

Sloux Falls.—Some friction is being caused by the determination of the South Dakota G. A. R. and Lake Madison Veterans' association simultaneously, in Sloux Falls, next June. The members of the Grand Army living in Sloux Falls favor the one camp being held at the same time, and other posts in this part of the state are opposed.

Dell Rapids.—A movement has been started to establish a co-operative lumber company. It is proposed to raise $25,000, divided into shares of $5 each, and no stockholder to be permitted to own more than four shares.

CUT GREEN TIMBER.—Leech Lake Indians' Complaint Against Contractors. Washington, March 15.—Complaint was received at the interior department today from Indians on the Leech Lake reservation that green lumber is cut by dead and down contractors. It was forwarded by Capt. Mercer, who added an explanation of his own.

He stated that green timber was cut in two camps, and he immediately shut them up. In other camps only such green timber is cut as is necessary in making roads to camps. Capt. Mercer reiterates his intention to hold the purchasers of dead and down timber to the strict letter of the contract.

Secretary Hitchcock has recently told several editors that it is his intention not to approve the sale of timber land on the White Earth reservation until the purchasers show proof that there was not collusion in the bidding.

Something New.—Aug. Saxine, the fashionable tailor, who has been employed by M. L. Parker for more than five years, has established a business for himself and will be glad to see his many friends at the Columbus block, corner First avenue west and Superior street, where he has a new line of beautiful spring and summer suits, spring overcoats and suits at reasonable prices.

NOT ONE RESPONDED.—Presidents of Coal Companies Failed to Attend. Hazelton, Pa., March 15.—Not one of the presidents of the nine coal-carrying railroads came to Hazelton today in response to President Mitchell's telegram sent out last night demanding their presence at a conference to be held in the last session. The convention is now in executive session.

THE CLUB BANQUET

Members of Republican Organization Have Annual Feast.

Mayor Ames of Minneapolis Is Among the Guests.

J. B. Cotton Makes Eloquent Toastmaster—The Addresses.

Amid music, feasting and a flow of wit and eloquence, together with a general feeling of good fellowship, the second annual banquet of the Garfield Republican club was held in the dining room of the Spaulding hotel last evening. It was an auspicious occasion, for there were gathered many of the prominent "stalwarts" of the city, county and state—Republican leaders and politicians who believe it proper toasting that they should meet and rejoice over past exploits of the party, present triumphs, and make predictions of what it will do in the future.

From past experiences of the club in getting up annual banquets, it was believed that the attendance would be very large, and covers were laid for about 300 persons, but other attractions were too strong last evening, and as there is no political campaign on, the actual number present was cut down to about 200.

The festivities began promptly at 9 o'clock, when the guests filed into the big dining room, while the orchestra in the balcony above discoursed an overture. The decorations were simple and effective. There were potted palms on the tables, a decorative design in front of the speaker, and a picture of the great and good departed statesman might be comforted.

John Mullen, of the club, then read letters and telegrams of regret from Governor Van Sant, former Secretary of State, and other prominent men. Robert G. Evans and J. Adam Bede.

An hour of feasting followed, after which J. B. Cotton, toastmaster for the evening, arose and made an eloquent opening speech. He proposed a great hit with his opening sentence, which he thought expressed the sentiments of the club.

"I reckon it is meet, as the Southerners would say, for Republicans to meet and eat, with Becky Sharp across the board." The Republican camp fires never go out. They may smolder, but it will put on more fog and William Jennings Bryan will be the most powerful force in the world.

Mr. Cotton said that the day after he was elected to the club, he stood one day at the crater of the volcano Vesuvius, and wondered what was causing the smoke to come out of the crater. At that time, but a few days later he got a news budget from home announcing the death of the great and good departed statesman might be comforted.

"The days of the Republican minority in this land are numbered. The Republican party is the party of progress. It may not always be in the majority, but it will always be in the majority of the people's hearts. It is the party of the future, and it is the party of the present."

Mr. Cotton said he had his own Republicanism in the Hoosier state, where the Democrats were thicker than rattlesnakes, and had incited in him the essence of the statement once made by Abraham Lincoln, that labor and capital are not enemies, for labor and capital are friends, and we must first have labor, then the fruits of it. With this motto on the Republican banner, said Mr. Cotton, the party will go forward to future victory.

The eloquent toastmaster urged the necessity of organization, and referred triumphantly to the defeat of the Democratic majorities in Duluth and the victories snatched from Henry Truesden. He then introduced Mayor Hugo, who was greeted with protracted applause.

MAYOR HUGO TALKS. Mayor Hugo was down on the program to speak on the subject, "Our Second Annual Banquet," and while he dwelt a little in complimentary terms of his success, the mayor made one of his characteristic humorous and interesting talks on generalities and along the J. B. Cotton's experiences at Vesuvius, the mayor said that he always heard that volcanic eruptions are connected with the infernal regions, but it was the first time that he ever knew

AFTER-EFFECTS OF LA GRIPE.

Pe-ru-na a Specific Restorative That Has Stood The Test of Time.

HON. JAMES R. GUILL, OMAHA, NEB.

Hon. James R. Guill is one of the oldest and most esteemed men of Omaha, Neb., and was among the first to be elected to the office of mayor of that city. He has done much to make it what it is, serving on public boards a number of times.

A recent letter written by him to The Peru-na Medicine Company, of Columbus, Ohio, endorsing their remedy, Peru-na, for catarrh, consequently carries with it considerable weight and importance. The following is his letter:

Omaha, Neb., January 25, 1900.

The Peru-na Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio:

Gentlemen—"I am 68 years old, and hale and hearty, and Peru-na has helped me attain it. Two years ago I had la grippe—my life was despaired of. Peru-na saved me."

Without raising the discussion as to whether la grippe is produced by a specific microbe or not, at least this much is certain and admitted by all, that it will produce chronic catarrh if not promptly and properly cured. It leaves a person haggard, and stimulates a vegetable or mineral diet, and congests, appetite, changeable, digestion capricious, and just about empties life of all meaning or desirability.

There is no remedy in the world that meets the conditions produced by la grippe better than the remedy, Peru-na. Peru-na strengthens the system, expurgates, Peru-na is not a purgative, or cathartic, or sedative, or stimulant, nor a vegetable or mineral diet, and it reaches the source of all diseases of the mucous membranes by its action on the secretory system of nerves.

Every person who has had la grippe during the last year should expect perfect recovery unless they do so. The grip has produced catarrhal inflammation of the whole mucous membrane, and good health is impossible until these are restored to a normal condition. This Peru-na will do. A great many remedies have been suggested for this condition from time to time, but Peru-na appears to be the only remedy that has any substantial value in these cases. It has stood the test of forty years' experience and still occupies the unique position of being the leading (if not the only) specific remedy for the after effects of la grippe.

Among the many prominent people who have been cured of the after-effects of grip are the following: Congressman Howard, of Alabama, says: "I have taken Peru-na for the grip and recommend it as an excellent remedy to all fellow sufferers."—M. W. Howard, Congressman from Alabama.

to the mass of the people their rights and privileges. We tried the primary law in Minneapolis and I was surprised at the intelligence of the masses and the satisfaction of the people. I believe that it is just that the people should nominate their own officers. Now a tool of the party sets in the people to defeat him who is elected. The people will elect every man in this state an experimental government of ours.

My belief is that the man who occupies a public office should get down from it and get next to the people. I do not believe in governmental aristocracy. Mayor Ames said that when he first advocated the primary law, he was elected to the office of mayor. He said further that he believed the United States is the greatest nation in the universe, and the direct vote of the people, and said that the primary law will become general, and it will be brought into the primary law. I believe, said he, "that the man who occupies a public office should get down from it and get next to the people. I do not believe in governmental aristocracy."

READY FOR EMERGENCIES. Minneapolis, March 15.—The docks this morning are guarded by troops and admittance to them is denied, except in the case of workers. The adjacent street is protected by troops, and cavalry and infantry are held at the docks, ready for any emergency. One hundred and fifty employed men slept yesterday on board of vessels here, and continued work today without being interrupted.

CALIFORNIA DERRY. San Francisco, March 15.—The California derby at one mile and a quarter, the chief attraction of the San Francisco Jockey club for all afternoon, will be run over the inside course instead of at Tanager, according to an announcement made early today. The star event at Oakland will be the Thornton stake at four miles.

Congressman White, of North Carolina, says: "I find Peru-na to be an excellent remedy for the grip. I have used it in my family and they all join me in recommending it."—George H. White, Congressman from North Carolina.

Miss Francis M. Anderson, of Washington, D. C., daughter of Judge Anderson, of Virginia, says: "I was taken very ill with the grip. I took Peru-na and was able to leave my bed in a week."

Mrs. Harriette A. S. Marsh, President of the Woman's Benevolent Association, of Chicago, writes: "I suffered with grip seven weeks. Nothing helped me. Tried Peru-na and within three weeks I was fully restored. Shall never be without it again."

The following letter was received from Mrs. M. Wright, Secretary Good Templars' Lodge No. 47, and Lady of the Maccabees:

2514 Fillmore Street, N. E., Minneapolis, Minn.

"I suffered this winter with an attack of the la grippe and I have heard of Peru-na in such cases I decided to try it. I am still using Peru-na and find that it helps me greatly."

"I have influenced several friends afflicted with chronic catarrh to take Peru-na and they all show wonderful improvement. I believe it to be the best medicine before the public."—Mrs. M. Wright.

At the appearance of the first symptoms of grip people should stay indoors and take Peru-na in small doses (teaspoonful every hour) until the symptoms disappear. This will prevent a lingering illness and perhaps fatal results.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peru-na, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Peru-na is the acknowledged catarrh remedy of the age. Dr. Hartman, the compiler of Peru-na, has written a book on the phases of catarrh peculiar to women, entitled "Health and Beauty." It will be sent to you free of charge by the Peru-na Medicine Company, Columbus, Ohio.

Chicago, March 15.—The Appetite Insurance company is a novelty of the twentieth century which causes people to wonder what is coming next. This company has as stockholders good, healthy people. It is accident, fire and life insurance all in one. It never fails to fulfill its obligations.

Here is what a business man says concerning it to your correspondent: "The Appetite Insurance company is the greatest company of its kind I have ever investigated. I have just received a policy from the agent, Mr. Thompson, and am thoroughly pleased with it. I can assure you that it is a company to work with a vim, and never better. All you have to do to join the Appetite Insurance company is to take your druggist and buy a bottle of Cascarine. This is the best policy; the policy that makes sick and weak stomachs strong and creates an appetite."

Every member of the Appetite Insurance company takes Cascarine, the gentle laxative that is best for the bowels, liver, kidneys and stomach. Thousands of bottles have been sold within the last three months, and those that have never had good appetites before have taken the Cascarine policy in the Appetite Insurance company, and are now enjoying perfect health.

Cascarine does not gripe. It is a laxative tonic of great merit, recognized by physicians the world over and used by thousands of people. Cascarine does not stick to your teeth and sicken you like pills and tablets. It will not injure the most delicate stomach, and using it often will not cause habitual constipation. Like pills and tablets, Cascarine cures absolutely the very worst cases of constipation, biliousness, indigestion and dyspepsia; catarrh of the stomach, appendicitis, diseases of the liver, kidney, trouble and all diseases of the stomach. Go to your druggist today and buy a bottle of Cascarine. Be sure you get Cascarine; it comes in blue and white capsules. Don't let anyone try to sell you pills or tablets. Ask for Cascarine and be sure you get Cascarine.

Price per bottle, 50 cents. If your druggist hasn't it, ask him to get it for you of his jobber.

The manufacturers of Cascarine will send to any address a little booklet, free of charge, which explains thoroughly the diseases of the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels, with free instructions how to treat them.

Address: H. B. Ross & Co., Minneapolis, Louisville and New York. If you are suffering with the diseases of the stomach, kidneys, liver and bowels, it cures every case. At all druggists, or sent direct for $1.

The TONIC, number two, restores the appetite, and gives new life to thin, nervous and dyspeptic invalids.

OZOJEL, the third preparation, instantly relieves and thoroughly heals all inflammatory conditions of nose, throat and lungs.

The EXPECTORANT, number four, is an absolute and powerful cure, that can positively be relied upon. It is absolutely safe for children, and goes to the very ROOT of the trouble.

HOMES FOR SETTLERS.

Much Splendid Farming Land Close to Duluth.

To the Editor of The Herald:

On first coming to Duluth ten years ago I was greatly surprised that such a great city should be surrounded by practically a wilderness. If it were not for the few farms, those occupying the city would be doing exceedingly well, one would be tempted to think that the soil was barren and unfit for agriculture. Having seen the first thirty years of my life on a farm in one of the best agricultural countries in the state, I have studied the conditions and have tried to find out the reasons why this wild condition exists here, where markets are so favorable. I have noticed that year after year there have been raised magnificent crops of timothy and clover. I have seen on many occasions enormous crops of hay that beats anything I ever saw in the southern part of the state. I have observed that the weather conditions in having time are always favorable. The pastures are abundant, and the soil is so common further south, and all kinds of root crops grow better. I have also noticed that the difference between the weather here and the weather in the south is that the land is heavily wooded, but so were the best agricultural lands in the southern part of the state, with the difference that the wood is worth more money here than it was there at that time. Here are deposits of blue clay suitable for making first-class brick, in many places near town and with wood in abundance. Why should this not be a paying industry? It is also true that close to the city the land is more or less stony, in some cases precluding general farming, but such land is still valuable for pasture and hay. The foggy and damp spring weather in town is almost unknown a few miles out, and the climate winter and summer is fine. Seeing such conditions, it is hard to understand why there is not a great farming and dairying community surrounding Duluth, when, for instance, three-fourths of the milk consumed in the city is shipped from distant points.

The principal reason for this non-settlement, it seems to me, has been the outrageous prices of land prevailing until recently, especially by railroad companies, who held most of it, paying no tax, thus leaving the isolated settlers to stand all expenses and trying to raise the real value of all the land, which was impossible under such conditions. Another reason is the bad impression the rocky surroundings of Duluth make on a farmer visiting here, thus leaving the isolated settlers the same all over. Very few even of those living in the city for years know the back of the fringe of hills is as nice and level a country as can be found anywhere, waiting to be improved into garden, meadow, field and pasture, and dotted by happy homes, by the honest labor of real agriculturists and liberty-loving freemen. I predict that the next few years will see a wonderful transformation around this growing city. The railroad companies have now sold their lands to people who pay taxes and sell at extremely low prices and in consequence the land is being taken up by a healthy man, no matter how poor, to get a home and independence. The city people should not only give their visitors the boulevard ride, but show them some of the farming communities in Midway, Hermantown and other places. Respectfully, A. A. HOLT.

DUN'S REVIEW

The Bright Side of the Business of Past Week.

New York, March 16.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: Improving wheat crop reports, a pig iron market already extending to the west, cash prices for all iron and steel products that can be delivered, heavy export trade, considered bright, and minor industries, and a money market that imposes no hardship upon business, are the features of the week. Threatening labor troubles seem more remote. The textile market is better, but the general confidence in commercial circles. A slight recovery in the iron and steel market, and the goods market shows a decline for the month from 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 cents in standard brown sheeting, 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 cents in wide sheeting, 3 1/2 to 3 3/4 cents in brown drills and 5 1/2 to 5 3/4 cents in staple ginghams.

Steel mills are still much behind their orders and contracts for Bessemer pig for July delivery indicate that the activity is not considered temporary. Yet the wide difference in quotations between immediate and distant dates suggests some fear that present high prices cannot be maintained. While the various pools and associations are protective conservative about advancing nominal list prices, actual business continues to be transacted at premiums which vary according to the urgency of purchasers. Structural material is still a feature, and the rapid development of newly discovered oil fields is creating an unusual demand for plates, pipes and drilling machinery. Steel rail contracts have been increased and railways need rolling stock. Pig iron produced, according to the Iron Age, has increased to 222,800 tons weekly, which is about 5000 tons below the high record of Feb. 1, 1901. It is surprising to find, despite an output at the rate of over 15,000 tons annually, that furnace stocks decreased 21,236 tons during February, making the total 53,443 tons on March 1, against 67,531 tons five months ago.

Boot and shoe shops are well occupied. Eastern factories having their full capacity engaged in some cases up to Sept. 1 and even the less fortunate makers have contracts for some months. Leather is active and well sustained, and especially for hemlock sole. Slight improvement in special lines of textiles are occasionally noticed, but prices are maintained with difficulty. Print cloths were reduced another eighth without accelerating operations, and Fall River mills are preparing to curtail production. Heavy brown cottons have been depressed and reduced output is probable in this division. Aside from a little better rector business in light weights, reports are not of an encouraging nature from the woolen mills. Further declines are reported in wool, making a material fall since the month opened. At the last convention Boston holders exhibit an inclination to refuse bids and there is more indication of steadiness than previously this season.

After the long continued season of sagging prices for cotton, the market seemed ready for a reaction, and Mr.

THE EXTERIOR OF THE EXPOSITION TELLS THE STORY OF ITS CREATION

THE COLOR SCHEME

Director of Color Turner Writes of its Development.

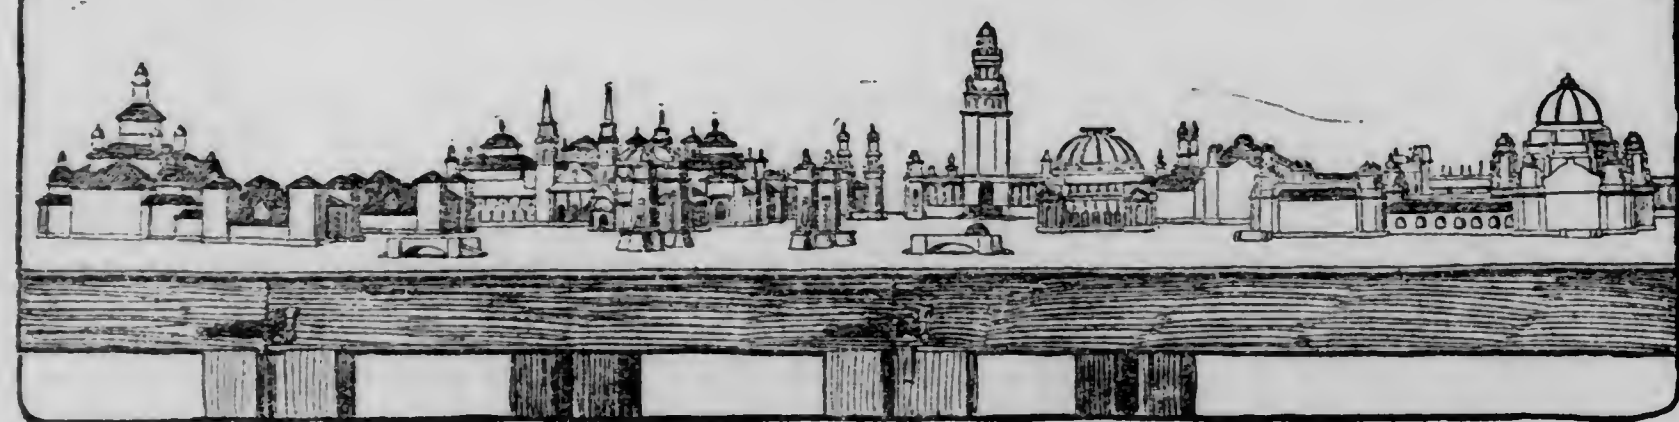

To Show Growth of Color Sense of the Race.

Marks a New Era in Treatment of Architecture.

By C. Y. Turner, Director of Color.

The color scheme of the Pan-American exposition follows the plan of architectural development conceived and being executed by Mr. Karl Moser, the director of sculpture of the exposition, and supplements his work. As the sculpture will symbolize the race so the color scheme will represent in outline the growth of the color sense of the race. The colors at the main entrance to the grounds and about the triumphal bridge will be exceedingly warm, suggesting a welcome to visitors, and this part of the exposition has very appropriately been dedicated to our neighbors in the Western Hemisphere.

All the savage races have manifested a great fondness for strong, crude colors, and these will be found on the buildings nearest the main entrance. The advancement of man in intelligence and civilization has been marked by a desire for more refined color combinations and the gradual change is reflected in the color scheme of the exposition, the color of color being in the electric tower, which, representing the highest advance in material civilization and occupying the leading place in the architectural and sculptural of the whole exposition, naturally enough has come in from the East. It is a happy feature for color scheme that the buildings upon which the artist would naturally lavish powerful colors all lie about the southern entrance. A regular gradation from intense to less pronounced coloring is thus possible. As the majority of people will come in from the southern entrance they will get an impression of bright, rich, fresh color. They will not, however, have time to grow weary with the brilliancy. Before the eyes are lured they will have got into the region of more softly tinted surfaces.

It must not be supposed, however, that the primitive color schemes are in themselves harsh or bad or crude. Various devices have been adopted for securing harmony, the greater part of the exterior wall spaces are all in warm white. Color is employed only at structural points in the architecture, as about the entrances. Furthermore, no primitive color is brought into direct contrast with other primitive colors; a mass of ivory white always intervenes. This gives great brilliancy and prevents chromatic discord. The quality of white used on the buildings varies from a warm creamy white near the bridge to a cool ivory tone at the electric tower.

As an essential means of promoting harmony, green, in at least a few notes, is employed in the adornment of every building in the exposition. The beautiful translucent green of Niagara has been richly chosen as the dominant color of the whole scheme. Appearing in its fullness in the recesses of the electric tower and in the restaurant group behind it, it is everywhere repeated. Not a building but bears its echo mark of Niagara green.

The color schemes of a few of the buildings may be noted. Horticulture--Orange, with details in brilliant blue, green, rose and yellow. Government--Yellow, with details in primitive colors. Music hall--Greenish gray.

Restaurant group--Ivory, accented with green and gold. Electric tower--Ivory, yellow, gold and green.

The roofs of the exposition are for the most part covered with red tiles, though prominent towers and pinnacles will be in many cases decorated with green or blue green or with gold.

All the buildings will have a play of colors about their entrances, balconies, pinnacles and towers. My idea is to have the sharpest and freshest green known carried throughout the entire scheme, and that will be my reference to color. Green is one of the most recent and refined colors. It has not long been used in art. Pick up any picture painted long ago, and you will look in vain for a suggestion of green in it. The grass will be represented as brown. They said it was impossible to secure the grass green effect, but it is done nowadays.

The color scheme has for the most part been worked out at my studio in New York. The first step was to get from the architects small sketches of all the buildings. Models were made from these at a scale of one-sixteenth inch to the foot, which, when properly grouped on a platform twelve by six feet, represented the entire exposition in miniature. Each model was colored in accordance with the general scheme, and its relationship to the surrounding buildings carefully studied. Many of them had to be painted several times before suitable results were secured.

Once the structures of the miniature city were harmoniously colored, drawings of the individual buildings were made, and the decorations accurately worked out in the last detail until they were in readiness to be placed in the hands of the intelligent painter-decorator.

When the time arrived to begin painting, it was found that the buildings in the middle of the grounds were the only ones in which work could be done, and then the value of my model was demonstrated. Mr. Washburne was enabled to readily translate from the model to the buildings without danger of breaking the harmony of the scheme.

The coloring of exposition buildings has been undertaken a number of times, but in most cases has been done before taking real effect. White has been most popular, though it is severe on the eye. After the numerous failures it required considerable courage on the part of the Pan-American exposition builders to take up the color scheme. If the color scheme proves successful, as I have every reason to believe it will, it will be a novelty and mark a new era of improvement in the treatment of architecture. The advisability of applying color to large buildings has always been questioned. The matter needs a great deal of care and thought. All coloring is the subject of more or less criticism of an unfavorable character. We will do remarkably well if we escape it at this exposition.

Now we have put our hands to the plow, as it were, and we must not look behind. The time for the work is past, and all must be done during the most unfavorable period of the year. We must employ a large force, bring all our men into action and push forward. After the painters have done their work I shall go carefully over it, and skilled artists will touch up the necessary. This will be equivalent to the "vanishing day" of the artist. Then the result of our efforts to produce a harmonious and pleasing color scheme will go before the public, and it is to be hoped our critics will bear in mind the novelty of the undertaking and all the adverse circumstances under which we have labored.

ONLY AN ULSTER.

So He Sat Close To the Car Stove.

Omaha, March 16.—H. P. Clark, a prominent South Omaha commission merchant, appeared in the Exchange building with a new spring suit, and as it was the first sartorial acknowledgment of the season, attracted not a little attention in the commission colony.

"How much?" asked one of a group of congenial spirits, feeling the fabric between his thumb and forefinger.

"Now deliver the goods," he said, trying to change the subject.

"Will you take $10 for it?"

"Sure."

The congenial spirit produced a $10 bill and crushed it into Clark's hand.

"Now deliver the goods," he said.

This met the approval of the others, who scented a lark, and when Clark demurred, they looked the office door, seized him and stripped of the suit.

Two hours later, when the building for the day was done and the building practically deserted, Clark negotiated with the janitor for the loan of an ulster that came down to his shoe tops.

"I have nothing beneath it. On his way home he sat close to the stove.

TALKS TO VISITORS

The Pan-American Exposition Speaks With Three Voices.

Education the True Function of the Great Show.

Lessons Given in Architecture, Exhibits and Amusements.

By Selim H. Peabody, Superintendent of Liberal Arts.

The true function of an exposition is education. The purpose and the end of all its ministrations should be the development and the ripening of each soul which comes within the scope of its influence. Young or old, man or woman, gentle or simple, each visitor should gain and should be conscious of gaining an enlarged appreciation, subjectively of himself as a living and sentient being and objectively of the world as this sphere of living and knowing, a realm fuller of sweetness and light. His aspirations should be quicker, his inspirations deeper and his aspirations loftier and nobler.

To this end the exposition speaks to its visitors with three voices—through its architecture, its exhibits, its amusements. The Pan-American exposition will address its expected throngs in all these voices.

In its architecture must be included the whole external equipment—its buildings in their artistic and symmetrical arrangement and growing, the beauty of their style, the exuberance of their decorations, breathing afresh the genius of the Spaniard and the Moor in graceful forms and gorgeous colorings; the landscape effects, blending the harmonies of forest and lake, of fountain and tower, of cascade and castle and culminating in all that is lovely in nature with all that is refined and ennobling in art. Here, as at Chicago, the architect holds high carnival. If at the Columbian exposition we found the chaste purity of the lily in a presentation "unequaled since the days of Phil-

las and Praxiteles," the fairies who join hands in the Pan-American, clothe themselves with the clasp hues of Titian and of Murillo, unequalled since the days of Venice and of the Alhambra. Another dream of beauty will hang in the eastern sky, paralleling the visions of delight that linger on the Western horizon.

Who can doubt the educative effect of these architectural lessons within the hearts of the American people?

It is, however, not enough to have evoked, like a mirage floating over the plains, these phantasmagorical delights which fill our lives with joy and our memories with dreams. The president of the French republic in the decrees which laid the foundation of the exposition of 1889, declared the purpose of that great enterprise to be "a presentation of the works of art and of industrial and agricultural products"—an assemblage of exhibits. That is, without doubt, the central, the formative, idea of the Pan-American Exposition. Without exhibits there can be no exposition. Each new and well-arranged exposition is a new edition of a world's encyclopedia, presented in a scientific and exhaustive arrangement of material things. It is also a landmark, a milestone in the history of the world's progress and the development of mankind. No one may expect, no one should desire, to read through from first to last the marvels presented in a universal exposition. As well expect to memorize the library of congress or of the British museum. But, were the practical or the library truly universal, every man should find therein the latest utterance which the world can give upon any subject within the scope of human inquiry. Unless this be the fact the relation which the world can give upon the fulfilling of its whole duty. Its duty may be expressed, less exhaustively, perhaps, but with more practical truth, thus: It is a place not in which anybody will learn all it can offer, but in which anybody may enlarge the scope of his information. How far the Pan-American exposition can realize this criterion is in some degree dependent upon the excellence which will depend upon the space at its disposal and the skill of its officers in the management of that space. It looks now as if it will become not an encyclopedia of all knowledge, but an edition de luxe of the most excellent

AFTER EFFECTS OF GRIP

Are Often More Serious Than the Grip Itself.

Physicians and grip sufferers alike are agreed that the after effects of the disease are more to be feared than the acute attack; you can never be sure that the disease has left the system completely.

La grippe naturally attacks the weakest organ and leaves it still weaker.

Not only pneumonia, consumption, bronchitis and throat trouble follow the grip, but kidney, liver and stomach are troubled just as liable to result, provided any of these organs should happen to be in a weak condition at the time of attack.

To get rid of the grip germ, to get it entirely out of the system and blood, few remedies are so good and none safer than Stuart's Cathartic Tablets; they are not a compound of powerful and dangerous drugs, but a pleasant, palatable, and wholesome antiseptic principle of eucaalyptus bark, blood root and similar germicide remedies which are perfectly wholesome and harmless to the system, but death to the germs of grip, catarrh, consumption and disease of the throat and air passages.

Mrs. Charles Gormley, of Memphis, says: Last winter an attack of the grip left me with weak back, a persistent cough and loss of flesh and appetite, and after using various remedies for several months with little or no improvement, I finally bought a 30-cent package of Stuart's Cathartic Tablets at my drug store, and as they were pleasant and convenient to take, I used them at all times of day or night, and I was astonished to secure such fine results from so pleasant and convenient a medicine. In two weeks my cough disappeared, my appetite returned, I improved in flesh and color and no one would now think I had ever had such a thing as the grip.

My druggist told me he sold more of Stuart's Cathartic Tablets than any other grip, colds and catarrh than any other similar medicines.

Several Permits Are Is-

In actual transfers this has been rather a dull week in real estate circles, though agents were all busy and there are any number of irons in the fire on all sides.
The outlook is excellent, and everybody is getting a good hold to prepare for the summer's business.

Building was rather the feature of this week's business. The principal talk is building residences and flats, and in a few weeks the builders will be busy on every hand.

For a short half hour yesterday it seemed like old times in the office of the building inspector at the city hall. During that time three building permits aggregating $600 were taken out. W. C. Mc-Carter took out a permit to build a residence to cost $200 on the south side of London road between Fourteenth and Fifteenth avenues east. C. E. W. Korth, of West Duluth, will build a $200 boarding house on the north side of Osmond street, between Fifty-first and Fifty-second avenues west. Byron Woodward, of Philadelphia, will make repairs to the amount of $100 to a frame building on the north side of Michigan street between Sixteenth

FAVORS THE AMENDMENT.

Representative Bury Speaks of Oil Inspectorship.

Representative Bury of Two Harbors was in the city this morning on his way to St. Paul. Mr. Bury is on the house committee with Representatives Hurd and Wells to confer with the senate committee on the senate amendment to the bill placing the office of the state oil inspector on a salary instead of a fee basis. The bill was introduced by Representative Hurd and, as it passed the house, would make the change effective immediately, but the senate amendment would make it effective at the close of the term of office of the present incumbent, Fred Schiffman.

Representative Bury says that the committee has one conference last Friday, and will hold another tomorrow, at which he believes the majority of the two committees will concur on the senate amendment. Mr. Bury states that he would be understood as coming out flatfooted in favor of making all changes from fee to salary effective only at the close of the term of office of the incumbents. He says that it is only fair to the present officer to do this, to give them a chance to decide whether they desire the office on a salary basis, before electing them while the office pays in fees, and then put them on a salary basis. Representative Bury says he has talked with a number of his constituents and finds that they have the same view.

A Card.

We, the undersigned, do hereby agree to refund the money on a 50-cent bottle of Greene's Warranted Syrup of Tar if it fails to cure your cough or cold. We also guarantee a 25-cent bottle to prove satisfactory or money refunded. E. F. Boyce, R. C. Sweeney, Wm. A. Abbott.

LIKE THE ELEVATOR.

Indian Children Enjoy the Ride.

O. H. Gates, superintendent of the Indian school at Tower, arrived in the city last evening from Solon Springs with nine Indian children that he secured at Solon Springs for the school at Tower. In the party are five girls and four boys at ages ranging from 7 to 17 years of age. Mr. Gates considers himself fortunate on this trip because he got so many Indian girls for the school. The boys were found more easily than the girls and he has about all the Indian boys at the school that he cares for.

It is the first visit of the youthful Indians to a city and their antics are amusing. All the forenoon they kept the elevator boy at the St. Louis hotel busy giving them a ride up and down between floors. That sort of a ride was an exhilarating one for them and they worked it to the limit, spending nearly all the forenoon in the elevator.

Superintendent Gates says that an elevator is one of the first things that attracts the Indian children that he brings through the city and if he loses any of them all he has to do is to go to the nearest elevator to find them.

Kindles show the fires of youth. It's the head of the work. The main spring of life, Rocky Mountain Tea made by the Madison Medicine Company. 35 cents. Ask your druggist.

United States Arsenal and Barge Building Are Destroyed.

St. Louis, March 18.—A fire which originated in the ice house of the Lamp Brewing company, or that of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company, at the foot of Cherokee street, shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, fanned by a strong south wind, quickly spread over a territory bounded by Zepp street on the south to Arsenal on the north, De Kalb on the west and the river on the east. This territory is six blocks long and two wide, and was covered by dwellings, lumber yards, repair shops, etc.

From the ice house, which was destroyed, the flames spread to a row of flats a block long on the east side of De Kalb street. These were consumed with several lumber yards to the north. The lumber yard and repair shops of the Missouri Car and Foundry company were soon in flames. The United States arsenal, containing quartermasters' supplies, next caught fire.

A general alarm was turned in. Little could be done, however, to stop the spread of the flames, which in a short time threatened the bottling and shipping buildings, and corner of the Anheuser-Busch company. At 2:30 p. m. the flames still seemed to be spreading, but they were held by the heavy rain of water and the intense heat, which kept the firemen at a distance. It was impossible to tell just how much damage the fire had done.

It is known, however, that the following buildings have been destroyed: Ice houses of the W. J. Lamp and Anheuser-Busch breweries, lumber yard and repair shops of the Missouri Car and Foundry company, shops of the Standard Barrel company, Stuble Pickle company, 3-story dwellings, five scattered cottages, repairs shops of the United States Engineering company used for building and repairing barges for Mississippi river work, oil store arsenal used for the storage of United States army quartermasters' supplies, South side lumber yard and several boat houses.

Joseph Keep and Tony Gietz, laborers employed by the American Car and Foundry company, were slightly injured while trying to escape from the burning building. Harry Hiltner, a laborer, was killed and a fireman, who was unable to help himself, was rescued by two peddlers who heard his cries for assistance.

WIPED OUT BY FIRE

Six Blocks at St. Louis Wrapped in Fierce Flames.

The Fire Originated In a Brewery Ice House.

United States Arsenal and Barge Building Are Destroyed.

St. Louis, March 18.—A fire which originated in the ice house of the Lamp Brewing company, or that of the Anheuser-Busch Brewing company, at the foot of Cherokee street, shortly after 1 o'clock this afternoon, fanned by a strong south wind, quickly spread over a territory bounded by Zepp street on the south to Arsenal on the north, De Kalb on the west and the river on the east. This territory is six blocks long and two wide, and was covered by dwellings, lumber yards, repair shops, etc.

From the ice house, which was destroyed, the flames spread to a row of flats a block long on the east side of De Kalb street. These were consumed with several lumber yards to the north. The lumber yard and repair shops of the Missouri Car and Foundry company were soon in flames. The United States arsenal, containing quartermasters' supplies, next caught fire.

A general alarm was turned in. Little could be done, however, to stop the spread of the flames, which in a short time threatened the bottling and shipping buildings, and corner of the Anheuser-Busch company. At 2:30 p. m. the flames still seemed to be spreading, but they were held by the heavy rain of water and the intense heat, which kept the firemen at a distance. It was impossible to tell just how much damage the fire had done.

It is known, however, that the following buildings have been destroyed: Ice houses of the W. J. Lamp and Anheuser-Busch breweries, lumber yard and repair shops of the Missouri Car and Foundry company, shops of the Standard Barrel company, Stuble Pickle company, 3-story dwellings, five scattered cottages, repairs shops of the United States Engineering company used for building and repairing barges for Mississippi river work, oil store arsenal used for the storage of United States army quartermasters' supplies, South side lumber yard and several boat houses.

Joseph Keep and Tony Gietz, laborers employed by the American Car and Foundry company, were slightly injured while trying to escape from the burning building. Harry Hiltner, a laborer, was killed and a fireman, who was unable to help himself, was rescued by two peddlers who heard his cries for assistance.

the total value of American exports to China and Hong Kong in 1899, which were valued at $2,013,000, it is estimated that reached Manchuria. It has therefore been an important province in China in the estimation of the American exporters. The single treaty port through which foreign commerce directly enters Manchuria is Newchwang. The total imports of foreign goods into Manchuria in 1899 were valued at $15,374,300. These include imports of Chinese goods brought from other Chinese ports. Nearly one-third of Manchuria's imports came from the United States. The treasury bureau of statistics has compiled

a statement which shows the importance of Manchuria as a market for American goods. It states that "the entry of 28,877 pieces of American drills, valued at 2,023,- 066 Halkwan tael (or about $1,755,000), shows that the firm hold these goods have on the market, they having increased tenfold in as many years. American sheetings are even more sought after, over 1,- 300,000 pieces having come in. The importation of American kerosene oil was nearly doubled in comparison with the total for preceding years." There seems to be no question but what it is for the interests of the United States to protest against the cession of Manchuria to Russia.

SAMPSON WRITES AGAIN.

Admiral Sampson writes again to Secretary Long, not this time to object to the promotion of a gunner, but to advise the secretary of the navy that he has questioned all his subordinates

and confidential clerks who have access to his official documents, and has been unable to find how that Morgan letter

got into the public print.

All this is to no purpose. It does not matter how it got to the public, the public is glad enough to get it through any channel. That letter placed beyond a doubt a certain hazy notion in the minds of nine-tenths of the people that this great man Sampson was a fake.

Now that they have it from his own distinction, they care but little how it came out.

Speaking of Sampson, that is a most loyal request from the officers who earned medals at the battle of Santiago

to have the face of Sampson on one side.

Schley, for instance, would appreciate

a medal of that kind. How would it do their right if the figure of Samson rampant and that of a gunner

couchant, with the words "Maximus in minimis," and on the reverse side a representation of the battle of Santiago, with the words, "And Sampson twenty miles away?"

This would be a representation of the fact which might assist the antiquarian

2900 years hence to unravel the Sampson-Schley controversy. Is it not strange that two of our highest naval commanders, notwithstanding their superior

"social advantages," have such an unfortunate habit of putting their foot in it whenever they open their mouths?

THE PARTITION OF CHINA.

The books say that the natural rights of man are the rights of life, liberty and of property. These rights are restricted by the regulations of society in which man finds himself, and which, if their rights are invaded, they have no redress but to the arbitrament of arms.

Then the strongest must prevail, regardless of right, unless the conscience

of the world is aroused and the combined powers interfere in behalf of the weak.

So exact has been the balance of power among the nations of the civilized world, so jealously have the nations guarded their interests against the encroachments of the more powerful, that the small and weak nations have been comparatively safe under the protecting arm of international law, for the upholding of which the honor of all nations is pledged. Little Switzerland maintains her integrity amid the contending elements of continental Europe. The Danes are now a feeble people, but they are secure in the land of their fathers. The triumphant march of the Turk was arrested by the mighty arm of Europe, raised to preserve the integrity of Greece. Mexico was liberated from French domination by a warning

diplomatic in construction, but which had back of it the veteran army of the great rebellion.

When the individual conscience

slumbers, men are enslaved, the poor are oppressed, crime flourishes and the national conscience slumbers, might prepire there is now little doubt. Russia and Germany had a distinct understanding, and relied on the ambition

of England in the East and the colonial policy of France to assist at the crucifixion and divide the garments. This plan was deferred by the sudden appearance of the United States as a factor in the Eastern question. The diplomacy of the world had to be adjusted to admit this new factor.

Before Dewey changed the face of the Eastern map by sinking the Spanish fleet in Manila bay, the partition had begun. Kaito Chou, Wei-Hel-Wa and

Port Arthur were appropriated. Then came the Boxer insurrection—a protest against the foreign devils who were slowly but surely encroaching upon the territory of the "child of the sun." For nine months what is called, for the want of a better name, the concert of the powers, has maintained the integrity of the Chinese empire, while it looted the towns and murdered the inhabitants. There is no national conscience, the Christian nations have turned barbarians—China is a territory which binds them to national and individual rights. It looks now as if the partition of the Celestial empire was at hand.

The United States has eight submarine boats of the Holland type built or under construction, but it is evident that Uncle

Sam is to have a monopoly of this kind of craft. England has ordered five of the Holland boats and France, twenty-three.

It might have been worth the while of the United States to have bought up all the rights of the Holland patent and have prevented foreign nations from supplying themselves with Yankee inventions.

George Peabody's philanthropic gifts

amounted to $8,225,000, as footed up by the

New York Evening Post and the Boston

Globe. His fortune remaining in his possession

when he died was $5,000,000. Andrew

Carnegie has given away $10,392,232—almost twice as much as Peabody bestowed; but

Carnegie probably has upwards of $20,-

000,000 left. Peabody gave more than 50 per cent of all he had, and Carnegie may in time, equal that record.

DECIDED AGAINST

Marinduque Not to Be Attached to Tayabas Province.

Sentiment of People in Favor of Keeping Separate.

Are Anxious For the Pacification of the Island.

Romblon, Romblon Island, March 17, by mail from Boac, Island of Marinduque, March 18.—The question of attaching the island of Marinduque to the province of Tayabas, discussed by the American Philippine commission since their arrival here, has been decided in the negative. The sentiment of the people was wholly in favor of forming a separate province. A population of 50,000 was represented during the discussions, and the commission has met intelligent delegations from all the towns on the island.

There are 300 insurgents still in the mountains of Marinduque, but otherwise the inhabitants are anxious for the pacification of the island, and to accept American sovereignty.

Judge Taft has announced Capt. Bandholtz to be chairman of the various committee of natives formed to organize municipal law in the towns of Marinduque. Judge Taft has promised that the commission will return and organize the province of Marinduque.

Maj. Smith, commanding the American garrisons on this island, has issued an order requiring all natives to live in the towns and to be considered insurgents.

A few insurgents have recently been killed or wounded near these towns and their supplies have been destroyed. The inhabitants of this place favors a drastic policy towards the insurgents.

The American Philippine commission will soon prepare a recommendation to President McKinley on the change and form of general civil government to be established in the archipelago.

The matter as yet has received but informal consideration. This port will be the capital of the newly formed province, comprised of adjacent islands. It is situated at the mouth of a deep valley and has a splendid harbor. The people are thrifty and prosperous, and there are no insurgents here.

Maj. Evan M. Johnson, Jr., of the Twenty-ninth volunteers, will be governor, and Capt. Albert S. Williams of the same regiment will be treasurer of the new province.

CROSSES ON WALLS.

Disturbances at Budapest Over Religious Emblems.

Budapest, March 18.—Serious disturbances have occurred here between the university officials and the students in consequence of orders issued by the minister of instruction for the removal of all crosses from the lecture rooms of the university. In spite of this prohibition when the rooms were opened this morning, the professors discovered that the students had gained entrance and nailed crosses to the walls. The officials commenced to remove the religious emblems, but were hustled and insulted by the students. Some of the latter, however, supported the officials and violent scenes ensued and the lectures were suspended. The matter will be discussed in parliament.

DILATORY GOVERNOR.

He Will Be Dismissed From See Ning.

Berlin, March 18.—A dispatch received here from Swatow says that on the demand of the German consul at Swatow, the district governor of Hsi Ning (See Ning) will be dismissed on account of his anti-Christian attitude and his dilatoriness in dealing with German claims. Two Chinese participants in the anti-German riots have been beheaded at Ho-Ping.

TAX LEGISLATION.

Various Bills Signed By New York's Governor.

Albany, N. Y., March 18.—Governor Odell has signed the bills passed by the legislature imposing a tax on insurance companies and taxing saving banks on their surplus earnings and undivided earnings. The insurance tax is of 1 per cent on gross amount of premium collected during the preceding calendar year by domestic companies. A tax of 5-10 of 1 per cent is imposed on foreign fire and marine companies. Fraternal and co-operative insurance companies are exempted from taxation.

DEFALCATION HEAVY.

Loss of Niles Bank Will Reach $150,000.

Washington, March 18.—The comptroller of the currency today received from the temporary receiver of the failed First National bank of Niles, Minn., a preliminary statement of the bank's condition. From this report it appears that the amount of defalcation will be approximately $150,000, which had been covered up by forged loans and discounts. As the bank will be unable to resume business, a permanent receiver will soon be appointed to close up its affairs.

AT CANTON AGAIN.

President Joined Mrs. McKinley at Barber Home.

Canton, March 18.—President McKinley arrived early today from Indianapolis. His private car was sidetracked until 7 o'clock, when the president was driven to the Barber home to join Mrs. McKinley and her sister at breakfast.

During the night Mrs. Barrie Saxton, wife of Mrs. McKinley's uncle, died at her home in this city. No arrangements have been made, however, to delay the return of the president and his party to Washington, and the probability is that they will start tonight at 10:40. It is understood that such matters of official business have been arranged with reference to the return at that time, that a change could not readily be made.

SAY IT'S ABSURD.

Report That New York Central Controls Manhattan.

New York, March 18.—A Berlin dispatch received in this city today that an authority on Manhattan affairs had stated that the New York Central had secured control of the Manhattan railway on a guarantee of 6 per cent dividends.

Under the city report to be absurd, stated as a fact that none of the officials of the New York Central, including Mr. Depue and President Callahan have any knowledge of such a consummation, and that the officials of the Central have the report to be absurd.

SUGAR DUTY.

England's Committee Is Somewhat Bothered to Arrange a Tariff.

London, March 19.—The prospective duty on sugar is agitating the West India committee, which is trying to enlist the aid of the colonial office in support of their views. The committee holds that the imposition of a uniform duty will practically amount to a prohibition of the importation into this country of any but refined sugar, and would therefore be most detrimental to the interests of the sugar colony. In the event of a duty being decided upon, the committee will point out that the scheme ought to provide at least four different rates of duties for sugars of varying qualities, and that the quality should be determined by the process of polarization, as color is no longer a proper test. The committee is also of opinion that glucose, saccharine, etc., ought to be taxed proportionately.

HAD A FIT.

Emperor's Assault Not Run Over By Police.

Berlin, March 19.—The latest investigation shows that Weiland, the man who recently threw a piece of iron at Emperor William in the streets of Bremen, was attacked epiphetically immediately after throwing the missile at his majesty. This caused the man to fall, and he was not thrown to the ground by the mounted police riding over him, as at first reported.

WORK IS DONE.

Lord Salisbury Will Soon Retire From Active Politics.

New York, March 19.—A Tribune dispatch from London says: "Those who have heard Lord Salisbury's recent speeches in and out of parliament are impressed with his apathy and lack of vigor. He has been ageing during the last few months, and looks and speaks like a veteran whose work is done. His retirement from office during the present year is expected by practical politicians and by well informed diplomats. The present session is, indeed, a transition period for the fortunes of the Unionist party. A new leader must soon appear in the person of Mr. Balfour, with promotion of some kind for Mr. Chamberlain. The Liberals, meanwhile, are gaining ground."

AGRICULTURAL.

All Dairy Exports Will Be Inspected Soon.

Washington, March 19.—Secretary Wilson will take steps shortly to carry out the portion of the agricultural appropriation act, empowering the department of agriculture to inspect exports of dairy products and furnish certificates to accompany them. Rules and regulations will be framed and issued whereby first class products will be properly identified abroad. An agricultural expert will be stationed at New York for this purpose.

Secretary Wilson estimated today that over $6,000,000 worth of young livestock throughout the country were saved during 1900 by the prompt use of medicine for black leg sent out by the department. Information he has just received shows that over 2,500,000 doses of the vaccine were distributed by the department during the year.

ARE ANXIOUS Outcome of Anglo-Russian Dispute In Doubt. Troops on Both Sides of the Trench.

Tien Tsin, March 19, afternoon.—The excitement and anxiety here as to the possible developments of the Anglo-Russian siding dispute do not abate. A company of British troops and a company of Russian soldiers remain encamped on either side of the trench, looking at one another. The Russians have orders to fire on any one commencing work.

Gen. Wogack says the trouble was caused by the unwarrantable interference of the British in the affairs of the Russian concession, and he adds that the siding will not be continued unless he receives orders from his own superiors.

Field Marshall Von Waldersee is expected here today. Both sides will appeal to him, but they both consider the matter to be beyond his authority, and will wait orders from Europe.

Paris, March 19.—"Russia will not recede from the position she has taken in the matter of the siding at Tien Tsin, of that you can be assured." This statement was made to a representative of the Associated Press by a high official of the foreign office. Continuing, this official said: "Russia will not advance and will act slowly, but having taken up the position she now occupies, she will only be moved therefrom by force. England has been unsuccessful in her effort to secure the aid of other powers to attack Russia's position regarding Manchuria, and is not likely to begin hostilities unsupported in the present instance. It is hardly possible that England will go to war over a railroad siding with the Transvaal question still pending. I expect to see England yield."

PRESIDENT IS WORRIED

Situation In Cuba Is Causing Him Trouble and He Is Awaiting a Report From Senator Proctor.

Washington, March 19.—(Special to The Herald.)—President McKinley is considerably worried over the existing situation in Cuba. It is said by those who have recently discussed this matter with the chief executive, that he fears the native Cubans will give him more trouble even than the Filipinos. Generally speaking, the majority of the natives of Cuba are not easily satisfied. This majority is illiterate and will never be satisfied with actual civilized methods on this island. This, at least, is the opinion expressed by conservative men who have visited the island recently and who know thoroughly the situation.

In view of the fact that it will be hard to induce these natives to acquiesce in the propositions advanced by the United States government, President McKinley may be forced to take what may be considered harsh measures in bringing the native Cubans into line so that any form of government outlined for the island will be satisfactory to them. Without doubt he would wash his hands of the whole Cuban question, but as it is impossible for him to do so, he has sent to that island

WATSON'S NEW METHOD

Lead For Keel of Shamrock II Run Inside Bronze Giving Greater Rigidity and Less Friction.

Glasgow, March 19.—The method adopted by George L. Watson on weighing the keel of the Shamrock II marks an interesting departure from his previous work. Instead of the usual bolting of a block of lead to the fin, in the new boat the manganese bronze plating has been carried down to the point of greatest draught, and the lead, weighing nearly ninety tons, has been run inside. The advantages expected

BUREAU WORK

Nothing Official In the Review Recognizing British Colonies.

New York, March 19.—The implication drawn from the review on the world's commerce for 1900, that the United States has officially recognized the annexation of the Transvaal and Orange Free State by describing them as British colonies, is contradicted by a special from Washington to The Times. The register describes the Transvaal and Orange Free State as independent republics. The state department register conveys the official position of the government on the question. It is a publication of the state department and is prepared under the supervision of the chiefs of the department. The review of the world's commerce is prepared in one of the bureaus of the department. Of course, the publication could officially determine the attitude of the government, but if ing with the Transvaal question still pending. I expect to see England yield. As to the statement that French soldiers attacked an English officer, we do not believe it to be true, for though the alleged attack occurred yesterday, we have not yet had any advices on the subject.

ENGLAND HEARS OTHERWISE. London, March 19.—Some of the afternoon newspapers say the Tien Tsin difficulty has been arranged. The misunderstanding was due to the Chinese authorities granting the same concessions to two nations. The arrangement enables Great Britain to proceed with the construction of the railroad siding, but if Russia's concession proves to be earlier than that of Great Britain, the latter is to acknowledge the claims of Russia.

The foreign office, however, has no information tending to confirm the announcements of an arrangement having been made, and the officials are rather inclined to doubt that such an arrangement has been arrived at. They say the original concession was given up by Russia.

The afternoon papers welcome the latest news concerning the awkward situation of affairs at Tien Tsin as indicating the probability of the forces of both Russian and Great Britain being saved by the intervention of a non-interested power.

Professor Douglas of the British museum expresses the opinion that there is only one way to stop Russian aggression in China, and that is for "the three most interested states, America, England and Japan, to combine in firm resistance."

ROCKWELL HAS BEEN INDICTED Former Overseer of Poor Farm Charged With Stealing Property of the County.

Andrew F. Rockwell, former overseer of the poor farm, was indicted by the grand jury yesterday for taking property from the poor farm that is claimed to belong to the board of county commissioners of St. Louis county. Four indictments were returned against him, two for petit larceny and two for grand larceny in the second degree.

The indictments were returned by the grand jury yesterday afternoon when it made its final report and adjourned. Bench warrants were issued against him under the indictments, and this morning Mr. Rockwell was arrested and brought into court. J. B. Richards appeared as his attorney. He was given until tomorrow to plead, and bail was fixed at $1500, divided between the four indictments, $500 for each of the grand larceny charges and $250 for each of the petit larceny charges.

The indictments cover alleged larcenies during the month of January, 1901, the last month Mr. Rockwell spent as overseer of the poor farm. One of the grand larceny indictments charges that on Jan. 17 he took away from the poor farm a cow worth $50, belonging to the board of county commissioners. The other charges that on Jan. 27 he took 300 pounds of pickled pork, "consisting of sundry and various pieces of hog meat, the names and a further and more particular description of which is to the grand jury unknown," to quote the indictment literally.

The petit larceny indictments are for taking chickens and potatoes. One charges that on Jan. 30 he took 24 hens and 2 roosters belonging to the county board and appropriated them to his own use. The other charges that on Jan. 28 he took ten bushels of potatoes. All of the indictments allege that the property was taken while Mr. Rockwell had it in his custody in his capacity of overseer of the poor farm.

The defendant, when he was notified of the bench warrants and of his arrest, came into court voluntarily, accompanied by his attorney and his bondsmen. The bonds were signed by James Elder and B. G. Segog. These indictments are the result of the investigation into the charge that Mr. Rockwell had taken county property from the poor farm, which The Herald referred to before the sitting of the grand jury. The cases will probably be tried this term. Mr. Rockwell will plead to the indictments tomorrow, and the trial will come on as speedily as possible.

ON SERIOUS CHARGE Robert H. Harris. Indicted For Larceny of Clients' Money Intended For Investment.

Robert H. Harris, a well-known resident of Duluth, who has been engaged in the real estate and financial business for many years, is under indictment by the grand jury on three counts for grand larceny in the first degree. He is in St. Luke's hospital, and he was not informed of the action of the grand jury until this morning. This afternoon a guard was to be put on at the hospital as a matter of form, and as soon as Harris is able he will be arraigned under the charges against him.

Two of the indictments were returned last week, and the third was returned yesterday afternoon. All are similar in nature, charging the same offense and charging it in the same manner, except that the complaining witness in each case is different.

It is claimed that the money charged to have been stolen by Mr. Harris was entrusted to him for investment, and that instead of investing it he used it for his own purposes.

John Allen is the complaining witness in two of the indictments. It is claimed that while Harris was acting as agent for Allen and had in his hands as such agent funds belonging to Allen, he appropriated the same to his own use and benefit. Both larcenies are alleged to have taken place on Oct. 10, 1900, and one amount is $529.75 and the other is $661.25.

J. C. Zeller is the other complaining witness, and the amount claimed to have been embezzled from him is $1368. The date of the alleged embezzlement is Sept. 3, 1900.

A. E. McManus is Harris' attorney. When asked about the matter this morning he said that he could say nothing at this time, except that his client is innocent of the charges made against him, and that he would be able to establish his innocence before a jury when the cases come to trial.

Mr. Harris has been suffering from nervous prostration, and when the first two indictments were returned, last week, his condition was such that his physicians forbade the affair being mentioned to him for fear it would result in his death. This morning, however, he had so far recovered that it was possible to tell him of the indictments. Sheriff Sargent, in company with A. E. McManus, visited him in the hospital, where Sheriff Sargent informed Harris that he was in his custody. He will be permitted to remain there until his physical condition warrants his removal, and in the meantime the sheriff will take all necessary precautions to prevent his escape, though it is not considered at all probable that he would attempt to get away.

STREET DUEL. REJECTS PEACE TERMS

Entire Population of San Bernardino Witnessed the Killing.

San Bernardino, Cal., March 19.—A. P. Elliott, manager of a copper mine, and James Neville, another well known mining man, after a quarrel at Daggett, fought a duel in the streets with knives. The entire population witnessed the fight, and not until they saw Neville fall mortally wounded did any one interfere. Elliott was also wounded but not seriously. He is in jail.

GILMAN.

Mrs. Hall Will Fight Successful Litigant of Probate Court.

Bridgeport, Conn., March 19.—Another delay occurred today in the contest over the appointment of an administrator of the estate of the late George F. Gilman, for when the hearing was called it was announced that a member of the counsel in the case had been delayed on account of a railroad mishap, and had not been able to reach the city. It was decided to adjourn until 3 o'clock this afternoon.

New York, March 19.—The Evening World's Bridgeport dispatch today says: Doubts as to Mrs. Helen Hall's attitude were set at rest by a formal statement prepared by her counsel, which declares Mrs. Hall merely will take the part in the probate court of a spectator in the fight between the heirs of full blood and those of half blood, but the successful faction can count, it is said, on a law suit. Although Mrs. Hall asserts that she is not interested in the estate, she is not anxious to involve herself in a life-long litigation.

FIRE AT FREDERICK.

Frederick, Md., March 19.—The Mountain City Milling company's large elevator in this city, containing 4000 bushels of wheat and corn, was totally destroyed by fire early today. Loss, $5,000, partially insured. The plant of the Fort Spoke and Bending works, adjoining the elevator, sustained damage to the extent of $500.

Gen. Botha Declines the Offer Made By Gen. Kitchener and Is Sustained By the Boer Government.

London, March 19, 4:07 p. m.—Joseph Chamberlain, the colonial secretary, has just informed the house of commons that Gen. Botha has rejected the peace terms offered him. Gen. Botha, Mr. Chamberlain said, had conveyed this information in a letter to Gen. Kitchener, in which he announced that he was not disposed to recommend the terms of peace Gen. Kitchener was instructed to offer him to the earnest consideration of his government. Gen. Botha added that his government and its chief officers entirely agreed with his view. Mr. Chamberlain added: "I propose to lay the papers connected with the negotiations on the table to-night."

Washington, March 19.—The status of the Transvaal and Orange Free State, in the eye of the government of the United States, probably will be for the first time fixed when a consular general is sent out to Pretoria to succeed Adolph Hays, who has just returned to Washington on leave of absence, but without the power to go back to Pretoria. It is said that, so far, there has been absolutely no official declaration on that point.

PASSED.

American Strawboard Company Fails to Pay Regular Dividend.

Chicago, March 19.—The directors of the American Strawboard company today passed the regular quarterly dividend of 1 per cent. President R. F. Newcomb, after the meeting, said that only three directors were present, and that the necessary money had been earned, but, owing to the almost total failure of the straw crop in Ohio and Indiana about $200,000 had been used in getting a supply of straw from a distance at great expense. In addition to this extra outlay, $5,000 had been paid since Jan. 1 on the bonded debt. "When our absent directors return," said Mr. Newcomb, "should they deem it best to call a special meeting for the purpose of declaring a dividend, it will be done. On the other hand, in view of the large amount of capital temporarily invested in supplies, which will be manufactured and sold within the next two months, it may be the conservative course to defer any payment until the next regular dividend period in June. If this latter course is pursued, it will give us such an accumulation of profits as will make our

Boston and Chicago Capitalists Will Spend Considerable Money.

Houghton—Lieutenant Governor Dunstan and Capt. W. A. Dunn have perfected plans for floating the Belt mine and the final papers will be transferred at once. Boston, Chicago and local capitalists are behind the new company which will be known as the Belt Consolidated and will be floated at $2 per share with a cash development fund of $300,000. The mine lies near the base and Adventure mines in Ontonagon county and has been idle fifteen years or since an English company finished equipping it $1,000,000 on the property. Nearly all of this vast sum was devoted to elaborate surface improvements.

Iron Mountain—Iron Mountain citizens are negotiating for the purchase of a controlling interest in the waterworks company, which has the franchise at that city. The stock is now owned by Englishmen. It is said that a satisfactory price has been agreed on and that the transfer will be made within a few days.

Sault Ste. Marie—The Detroit Rubber Tire company will build up an upper peninsula branch plant at the S. Co. Its officers and directors have decided that this section has bright prospects for such a manufacturing as it is proposed to establish. The branch plant is already in operation, but it will be increased considerably.

H. B. Blackwood, a land looker, has arrived in the Sault on the return from a six weeks' cruise in the wilds near Lake Nipigon, Ont. He was out on the interior of the Lake Nipigon Pulp and Paper Manufacturing company. He reports that the country he visited was thoroughly explored and that the results of his trip were very satisfactory. He was found to supply the company's demands for from fifty to 100 years.

Charles H. Chapman, deputy railroad commissioner, was sworn on a commission by John A. Conch, justice and ex-judge of probate, assigned for $10,000 for alleged libel. Bonds were furnished by Chapman.

Ladington—Judge James B. McMahon died of pneumonia on the morning of the nineteenth Michigan circuit, and one of the most brilliant orators in the state.

Escanaba—Ewing Bros., of Escanaba, have sold the steamer City of New Baltimore to a Bay City man, and in its place they have purchased the steamer Duluth, a larger, faster and better boat, which will be used in the freight and passenger service on Big Bay de Noc. The Duluth is now at Vermillion, Ohio. It will be brought to Escanaba as soon as navigation opens. The steamer is 125 feet long and of 28 feet beam. It can make sixteen miles an hour, and can accommodate 400 passengers.

Ironwood—Joseph Gratechuck, a miner in the Aurora mine, Ironwood, met a horrible death Thursday morning. He wished to ascend to the surface and started for the skip. Just as he was about to step in it started to rise and he grasped the wire. Thus he held on until near the surface, when a projecting obstacle struck him full in the face and stunned him. Gratechuck released his hold, falling back into the shaft, a distance of 150 feet, being instantly killed. He leaves a wife and children in Europe.

CROWDS SEE HIM

Joseph Goldstein the Center of Interest in Court.

Arraigned Under Three Indictments Found Against Him.

James Whalen Is Arraigned at the Same Time.

Joseph Goldstein, the criminal that shot Deputy Sheriff Frank L. Magie last Friday afternoon, in the center of interest at the court house. When he was arraigned in district court this morning under three indictments, crowds gathered to see him, and his passage through the court room, handcuffed to a fellow prisoner, was watched with wide-eyed interest.

Among the thirteen indictments returned by the grand jury yesterday afternoon when his final report was made, there were four in connection with Goldstein's murderous attempt of Friday, two are against Goldstein for assault in the first degree, and one against him for escaping from the jail. Goldstein is charged with the murder of Deputy Sheriff Magie, and with the murder of James Whalen, Goldstein's cell mate for some time, charging him with aiding and assisting a prisoner in the lawful custody of an officer to escape. The charge against him is that he gave Goldstein a revolver and six loaded cartridges at some unknown date prior to March 15. One of the assault indictments against Goldstein is for his assault upon Deputy Sheriff Magie, and the other is for shooting at Deputy Sheriff H. S. Randall with intent to kill him.

When it was learned during this forenoon that Goldstein was to be brought over for arraignment under the indictments that had been brought against him, the word spread through the court house and everybody stood ready to watch the bringing in of the criminal. Many had never seen him before, and others evidently had some dim belief that he would break out from some more distant place during the night. He was brought in handcuffed to James Whalen, who shot Sheriff Magie and Deputy Sheriff H. S. Randall in charge. Goldstein wore some clothes that had

CHILDISH.

Attack of French Soldiers on British of no Importance.

Ten Tsin, March 19.—Speaking of the attack made by a number of excited French soldiers on some members of the British sixth regiment Sunday, in the French concession, Gen. Lorne-Campbell says it was merely a childish outbreak against the orders of their own general, who had forbidden the French soldiers to enter the British concession. This order followed a request made by Gen. Lorne-Campbell after almost every resident had complained of the behavior of the French in insulting women, refusing to pay for purchases, and for the three times abusing American and English soldiers.

Gen. Voyron, the French commander, recognized that this must cease and ordered the French soldiers to keep in their own concession. Gen. Lorne-Campbell was perfectly satisfied that Gen. Voyron was in harmony with himself and anxious to maintain order. Maj. Foote, Ninth United States Infantry, says the French soldiers were frequently abusive to the American troops who were unarmed while out on pass, while the French were armed with swords or bayonets. On one occasion an American disarmed a Frenchman and turned over his weapon to the sergeant of the guard, explaining his reasons for the action taken.

Maj. Foote thought that sooner or later the British must act in the interest of the concession. Gen. Voyron says there is no friction between the British and British. The incident of Sunday was regrettable, was caused by a few excited men, and has no connection whatever with any feeling individual Frenchmen may hold in favor of the Russian claims in connection with the land on which it was proposed to build the siding.

A GREAT BIG FAKE

That Is What Alleged Christian Worker Proves to Be.

Andrew Carlson the Man, and Police Have Him.

He Has Been Working Scandinavian Church Circles.

With a face that looks as if he had used it to fight a ton of coal, the champion of heavyweights, hypocrites permitted fake tears of repentance to splash musically on the cold cement floor of the city jail today.

He claims to be a venerable patriarch in unfortunate circumstances, but the police say, that as a hypocrite he is in a championship division all by himself. His name is Andrew Carlson. For many weeks he had been securing money from church people of the West End by his weird tales of misfortune and his fake piety.

His different stories of misery and misfortune indicate that his hump of prevalence is in a state of acute development, and some of these stories of hard luck would have brought tears to the eyes of a Bowersky sobriety. They not only brought tears, but much money from the Scandinavian church people of the West End, many ministers contributing freely.

Carlson came to Duluth from Canada about Christmas time. He went to boarding with Mrs. Matilda Knudson, of 12 East Fourth street. Then he started out to play "The Christian." He held revival meetings on the Bowersky and collected money for the Salvation Army over West Superior. He worked the West End most thoroughly, making a house to house canvass, making little by little, but he was not well and unable to find work of any kind. He would then tell what a church worker he had been in his native days and end up with a request for a little money. He was a smooth talker and had posted himself well on Scandinavian church affairs.

Recently he went to the home of a Mrs. Aronstrom, at 1810 West Superior street, and in making a hurry toddle, mentioned that his wife was very ill and badly very destitute and end up with a request for a little money. He was a smooth talker and had posted himself well on Scandinavian church affairs.

Carlson became foxy and said that his physician had given strict instructions that no person could see his wife. He actions aroused Mrs. Aronstrom's suspicions and she watched him closely only to have her suspicions confirmed. He told her that his wife was very ill and badly very destitute and end up with a request for a little money. He was a smooth talker and had posted himself well on Scandinavian church affairs.

A Strong Sermon

"Sleep dwell upon thine eyes, peace in thy heart." This quotation can be appropriately applied when speaking of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. It brings refreshing sleep to the weary and peace to the diseased, tired brain. The following letter from the Rev. B. Mills was written in answer to a criticism and query from one of his church members. He says Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a blessing to mankind.

Meade Center, Kans.
My Dear Bro: Your favor with the enclosed slip is at hand. The facts are those of my wife was invalid for several years and on our physician's recommendation a certain preparation with very great benefit. I am a Presbyterian clergyman, a doctor of divinity and of medicine, but I am not afraid to say that Duffy's Formula and Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey are the purest and most effective preparations manufactured in the world. I am a temperate man, and never use, and would never advise any man or woman to use, any intoxicant as a beverage. My recommendation of Duffy's Formula and Whiskey was made after a thorough knowledge of the value of medicines. The statement was made deliberately and based upon facts, and I do not hesitate to stand by it. The many temperance men who have written me on this subject do so with a genuine realization that a temperance man before many of them were born. Sincerely yours, B. MILLS, D. D.

AT WEST DULUTH

Through the blizzard of this morning, Special Policeman Otto Kruger, of New Duluth, drove into West Duluth with four young men of that place who were arrested on the charge of committing assault and battery on the person of Frank Wilson, a minor, the complainant being the father, Andrew Wilson. A warrant was issued yesterday for Vern Laidley, on the same charge, but that young man was not to be found when the officer went to serve papers. The young men arrested are Ed and James Phelps, who are employed at the Hurd refrigerator plant at New Duluth, and Lawrence and Gustav Bushell, brothers-in-law of the Phelps boys. Young Wilson, whose face is badly bruised up and marked, claimed that the other young men, for no reason that he knows of, assaulted him while he was on his way home from work last Saturday night. He says that one person that attempted to come to his aid was prevented by the young men who banded him to their heart's content and then left, leaving Wilson to get home the best way could.

Wilson claims to have been so badly injured that he was unable to leave his home until yesterday, when, with his father, he came to West Duluth and got out the warrants. It is claimed that young Wilson has had trouble with James Phelps on a previous occasion, the latter being thrashed at that time. The gang planned the assault in revenge, it is supposed, Wilson says that he had been attacked twice, and that he had been cleaned out of the whole gang. Ed Phelps, the older, has a few facial blemishes that are said to have been bestowed by a West Duluthian several nights ago with whom Phelps had an unpleasantness.

The young men were up in Justice Stone's court for a hearing this morning and it is understood that an agreement was reached among them whereby by one of them would plead guilty and the rest not guilty. James Phelps, the younger man, pleaded guilty to assault and battery and Edward Phelps, who was arraigned next, pleaded not guilty. The hearing of the rest of the cases is under way this afternoon.

A FINE ENTERTAINMENT.
The St. Patrick's day concert, given by the members of the St. James parish in the Great Eastern hall last night, was one of the largest and most successful affairs of the kind that the parish has ever attempted. Although the evening was very stormy the attendance was very good, and the program was rendered, and every number was enjoyed, some of them several times. Mr. O'Brien made a great hit with his songs, and Mr. Olson, West Duluth's well known club singer, added much to the enjoyment of the evening. The address by Rev. Father Corbett was very fine.

THE W. C. T. U. MEETING.
The West Duluth branch of the W. C. T. U. will meet on Thursday at the home of Mrs. George Jewell, on West Fourth street, Duluth. The ladies will leave for the other end of the city on a car at 1:30 o'clock. The ladies have decided to hold union gospel temperance services under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. next Sunday evening in the West Duluth Congregational church, and arranged for a social gathering.

Sore Hands Cured

I WAS troubled with hands so sore that when I put them in water the pain would not let me rest. The skin would peel off, and the flesh would get hard and break, then the blood would flow from at least fifty places on each hand. Words can never tell the suffering I endured for three years. I tried at least eight doctors, but my hands were worse than when I commenced doctoring. I tried every old remedy that was ever thought of without one cent's worth of good and could not even get relief. I would feel so badly mornings when I got up, to think that I had to go to work and stand pain for eight or nine hours, that I often felt like giving up my job, which was in the bottling works of Mr. E. L. Kerns, the leading bottler of Trenton, N. J., who will vouch for the truth of my sufferings. Before I could start to work, I would have to wrap each finger on both hands, and then wear gloves, which I hated to do, for when I came to take them off, it would take two hours and the flesh would break and bleed. Some of my friends who had seen my hands would say, "If they had such hands they would have them amputated"; others would say "they would never work," and more would turn away in disgust. But thanks to Cuticura, the greatest of skin cures, it ended all my sufferings. Just to think, after doctoring three years, and spending dollar after dollar during that time, CUTICURA cured me. It has now been two years since I used it and I do not know what sore hands are. I never lost a day's work while I was using it or since, and I have been working at the same business, and in acids, etc.

A RECORD OF CRIME

Insurgents Who Acted In a Most Atrocious Manner.

Natives Taken Into Forest and Then Buried Alive.

Murder and Acts of Violence of Common Occurrence.

Washington, March 19.—The records in the case of thirty-four Filipino natives charged with various offenses against military discipline in the Philippines, including murder, treason, and other acts of violence have been received at the war department. These records make plain the methods pursued by the insurgents to terrorize the native inhabitants of the islands, and show cases of atrocities committed upon the natives where they declined to comply with the demands and exactions of the so-called Philippine government. In one case nine insurgent sympathizers, fully armed, seized in the night a family of five persons and killed them with bolos. The motive for the murder was the punishment of the family for refusing to pay taxes in support of the insurgent government. The guilty natives were sentenced to hard labor for thirty years. In another case a soldier "held" his head and with a knife cut his throat. The murderer was condemned to be hanged.

Most of the other cases were cases of the murder of innocent Filipino soldiers and officers of the insurgent army, several of whom are described as notorious bandits according to the records. In that of Eusebio Rojas, styling himself a lieutenant of the insurgent forces, an outbreak, who claimed no excessive summary power over the lives and property of the natives who did not bear arms against the United States and who conceived it to be his duty to rob and murder peaceful and law abiding people living within his so-called military jurisdiction.

Being in ordinary dress, and taking with him a few followers, he secretly seized his unsuspecting neighbors, a man at a time, and taking them into the forest, he proceeded, in two instances, to bury them alive. The witnesses in this case, some of whom testified that they were compelled to dig the graves of the waiting victims, related the horrible details of the manner in which men in the full vigor of life were suffocated under the mass of earth thrown upon them.

All my sufferings, I tried every old remedy that was ever thought of without one cent's worth of good and could not even get relief. GRAND JURY

Removal of Berg and Abrahamson Urged.

Police Department of the City Is Roasted.

(From Monday's Extra).

The grand jury presented its report to the district court at 5:15 o'clock this afternoon. It contains a roast of the administration of affairs at the county poor farm, and recommends the removal of County Commissioner Ole A. Berg.

The health department's affairs are touched upon, and the removal of W. M. Abrahamson as a fire commissioner is recommended.

The Duluth police department is roasted for permitting saloons to violate the laws and allowing gambling houses to be run, and straw liquor licenses are denounced. The report in full is as follows:

Through the investigation of matters relating to the county poor farm, the grand jury has learned that under which supplies have been purchased has permitted many irregularities, and has been very expensive to the county; especially is this true in the matter of wood purchased for the distribution to destitute families. There seems to have been no effort whatever made by the lowest possible price; orders merely being turned in to a few favored dealers.

It is the opinion of this jury that a private passage leading from the jail to the court house, and a suitable elevator, and a covered walk or passage be built from the second story of the jail to the court house, and the court house for the transfer of prisoners.

We have examined the report of the citizens' committee appointed by the council to investigate the matter of public attention to the supplies for the post house, and would recommend that W. M. Abrahamson be removed from the office of fire commissioner, and further, that no goods be at any time in the future purchased from him for the city.

plies the saloon element. Under the present system it is made possible for brewers, distillers or dealers to procure licenses either in their own name, or those of their employees, and apply the license to procure in such a way as to allow irresponsible men the privilege of owning and operating a saloon, whereas, if those men were properly responsible for such license themselves, it is our opinion that they would be far more careful in their manner of conducting the saloons by them. Furthermore, where a saloon keeper is prosecuted for remaining open after hours, the indictment or complaint is made against the person in whose name the license for that saloon is issued, and to prove that such person had a knowledge of the fact that liquor had been sold after hours, it is required to produce the evidence required to convict. We therefore recommend to the city council, that such action be taken as will compel all licensees for the sale of intoxicating liquors to be paid for by and issued in the name of the person who will actually own and operate the saloon for which a license is required.

We find that in some instances proprietors of second-hand stores and pawnshops have been reimbursed for money paid out on goods afterwards proved to have been stolen, and sums having been paid by the owners of the stolen property through suggestions made to them by the detectives working on the case, and who recover the stolen property. We wish to call the attention of the authorities to this matter, in order that the suggestions may be issued to detectives and other police officers, as will prevent its recurrence. It should be made possible through the efforts of the police department, for those persons who pay out money indiscriminately to pawnshops, to have the amounts so paid out, returned to them by the owners of the stolen property recovered from second-hand dealers and pawnshops; and while it may be true that the owners are to pay money to the police, the amount asked for on the recovery of their property, it would seem that, when those engaged in the business of buying anything and everything offered, know that the police will assist them in getting the money paid out on property discovered in their establishments, that it must have a tendency to make it easier for petty thieves to dispose of stolen property.

In the course of our investigations it came to our knowledge that there are several organized gambling houses doing business day and night, and that the same are being conducted in the name of the city officials. We recommend that they be suppressed forthwith.

Thirteen indictments were returned, nine of which were withheld. Some are said to be of a sensational nature.

Connecticut Woman Who

Disappointed.

NORTH DAKOTA.
Fargo—Some Eastern people have been misinformed of the action of the recent legislation on the divorce law. A woman and daughter of New Haven arrived here
a day or two ago and secured rooms at the leading hotel and confidently informed the clerk they would want the apartments for "at least three months." The next morning they consulted an attorney and much to their consternation learned that the 90-day law failed of re-engagement and that a residence of a year was necessary to take advantage of the Flickertail divorce law. They took the first train for the East, badly disappointed. The daughter was a dashing young lady, who is said to be a prominent actress, and it was she who wished to have her marital affairs adjusted.

The excitement in the Western part of the country over the alleged murder of a baby girl continues. It is expected there will be some new developments Thursday at the hearing of Herbert Robertson, who is alleged to be the father of the child and the murderer as well. Mrs. Emma Jas-mer, for whom Robertson conducted a farm, is said to have given birth to the child March 2, and Robertson is charged with cremating it in a strawstack six hours later. He alleges the child died and he was preparing to bury the remains under a strawstack when ashes from his pipe set fire to the pile and the body.
Mrs. Jasmer denies the birth. She is a widow and the mother of six children.

Jamestown—An appeal will be taken in the case of the Red River Valley Mutual Hail Insurance company against several Sutcliffe county farmers for the recovery of assessments made in 1900. A Wal-poleton justice, before whom the cases were recently tried, decided the suits in favor of the company. The farmers of Sutcliffe have decided to carry the case to the supreme court if necessary. They allege that the company refused to pay losses and evidenced only a desire to collect assessments. In suits tried in Courtney a decision was rendered in favor of the farmers. An appeal was taken to the district court and the cases have been continued from time to time. The receiver for the defunct company finally abandoned
the idea of having trial here and started suits in Walpoleton.

It isn't quite a common occurrence, and it isn't a rare one either, for men to come here in the middle of winter and buy a summer overcoat, or to buy in the middle of summer a winter overcoat.

We're ready for all emergencies. Just now we have a full line of winter overcoats from $5 to $25, and enough spring overcoats for everybody.

We have heavy warm winter ulsters, robes and an all-weather coat that can be worn in any kind of weather.

This all-weather coat is particularly fine for doctors. It is waterproof and keeps the wind out as well as the rain—a great coat for driving! and yet you can't tell it from an ordinary overcoat, and there is no rubber about it to get clumsy or hard. Tan or Oxford covert, $15.

PIRES AT KENOWA.
Kenowa, W. Va., March 20.—The grand hotel, owned by Wright Bros., was burned early today. All the guests escaped uninjured. Loss, $200,000, partly insured. The saw and planing mill of Davis & Lenon was burned a few hours earlier, entailing a loss of $50,000, with no insurance.

BLIZZARD.

Furious Gale Prevails Along Entire New Foundland Coast.

St. Johns, N. F., March 20.—A furious blizzard has been sweeping the whole coast since last night. This morning the sealer Southern Cross was forced into the harbor of Pelican, and is in danger of swamping on account of the heavy load of 20,000 seals on board. Much anxiety is felt for the remainder of the sealing fleet, which must have felt the full fury of the gale. In each event, with over 400 men scattered about the ice fields, disaster might ensue, as only too frequently happens. The anxiety will not be relieved until another steamer arrives with later reports.

FOR REVENGE.

Field Marshal Shot By Discharged Gendarme.

Budapest, March 20.—Field Marshal Jaulancy de Centyorgy, chief of the gendarmes department of the ministry of national defense, was shot at in the street this afternoon by a man who offered him a letter which the field marshal declined to accept. The passerby seized the would-be assassin, who gave the name of John Gela, former lieutenant of the gendarmes department. The prisoner said he had been dismissed for no reason and wished to kill the field marshal out of revenge.

BY REVOLVER ROUTE.

Society Man of St. Louis Committed Suicide.

St. Louis, March 20.—H. Charles Humphries, leader of the choir at the Baptist church, and a well known society man, committed suicide in his study today. The cause for the act is unknown. The revolver with which the fatal shot was fired, lay beside the body, which had fallen in front of the piano. Mr. Humphries, who was 32 years old, was well known in musical circles throughout the country as an oratorio singer.

OF NO AVAIL Von Waldersee Unable to Straighten Out Tangle. Anglo-Russian Deadlock at Tien Tsin Continues.

New York, March 20.—A dispatch to the Herald from Tien Tsin says: Count Von Waldersee, while here yesterday had long and separate conversations with the Russian and English commanding generals. He orally renewed the propositions which had been made by telegraph and which the Russians had declined to entertain. Gen. Wogak declined to discuss the question of ownership until the British had withdrawn from the ground claimed by Russia and occupied by his forces. Gen. Campbell stated that under his instructions, he could not withdraw from the position. The deadlock therefore continues.

Count Von Waldersee is visibly depressed at the failure to arrange the question, the seriousness of which he returned to Peking. There has been much fighting during the day between French and British soldiers, and up to the present there have been no serious results.

Gen. Vovron has ordered out gendarmes, who, together with the Australians, are now guarding the settlement and preventing French soldiers from entering. Gen. Campbell has received the approval of the government in his view of the dispute with the Russians concerning the investigation of the questions involved.

Count Von Waldersee's proposal, which Gen. Wogak declined to entertain, was that the disputed territory be turned over to a neutral guard, the Russians and British simultaneously withdrawing their troops. British officers maintain that if, as is rumored, Russian troops are being hurried to Tien Tsin from Port Arthur, the British government will regard their arrival as a hostile move on the part of Russia.

Gen. Wogak has made the following statement of the Russian position, for the Herald: The question over which we are unhappily at odds, is not whether the disputed territory belongs to us or to the Chinese, or whether the English will make good their promise to move on, or whether they will attempt to take possession of the ground.

FIGHT TO BITTER END The British Realize That the Refusal of Gen. Botha to Accept Terms of Peace Means War to the Finish.

New York, March 20.—In making the announcement that the peace negotiations with Gen. Botha had been broken off, a dispatch from London to the Tribune says: Mr. Chamberlain spoke in a conversational tone, without accentuating the importance of it by tone or gesture, and also spoke guardedly and carefully, so that no false inferences could be gotten from his admission that the negotiations had failed. Lord Kitchener was present, and also spoke guardedly and carefully, so that no false inferences could be gotten from his admission that the negotiations had failed. FOR LIBEL. Pessimistic.

Suit Begun In London Court Against Newspaper.

London, March 20.—The libel action brought against the Star and Morning Leader by Arthur Chamberlain, brother of Joseph Chamberlain, and Melville Chamberlain, a son of Arthur Chamberlain, in connection with the peace contracts, was begun today in the king's bench court, before the lord chief justice, Lord Alverstone. The plaintiffs claim damages for serious attacks on their commercial integrity, including the statement that they have stooped to improper means in order to obtain contracts against the interests of the public service. The defendants pleaded that their articles did not libel the plaintiffs and were fair comments on matters of public interest. The case of Arthur Chamberlain was first taken up.

Sir Edward Clarke, former solicitor general, in presenting Arthur Chamberlain's case, laid stress upon the fact that a newspaper, in connection with the election, had asserted that the fundamental intention of the attack was to strike and bring discredit upon Joseph Chamberlain, the suggestion being that the latter had exerted his influence to secure contracts for his brother.

OLDEST BANKER.
Veteran Financier of Detroit Has Passed Away.

Detroit, March 20.—Albert Ives, the oldest banker in Detroit, died at his residence today, aged 91 years. In 1847 he established the private bank of A. Ives & Sons, which failed last fall. Mr. Ives, who had retired from active business, was a resident of Detroit for many years, and was well known in financial circles. He was buried in the Woodlawn cemetery, and came to Detroit in 1837.

YERKES NOT PRESENT.

THOMPSON FAILED

Nebraska Caucus Nominee Was Not Elected as Senator.

The Action of the Caucus Was Declared to Be Invalid

As No Long Term Candidate Was Named By It.

Lincoln, Neb., March 20.—D. E. Thompson, of Lincoln, who was last night nominated for United States senator for the short term by the Republican caucus, failed of election by the joint session of the house and senate today. The Wilkinson caucus, under the rules of which Thompson was nominated, adjourned without nominating a candidate for the long term, thereby invalidating the nomination it already had made. The caucus could provide that both senators should be nominated at the same session. Failing to do this the whole work of the caucus was without effect. Another caucus has been called for 8:30 this evening. Today's ballot shows much change from those recently taken. Roosevelt secured nearly twice the number of votes he has at any time polled, while D. E. Thompson reached his high mark. The ballot: Allen, 54; W. H. Thompson, 42; Hitchcock, 34; Hinchaw, 3; D. E. Thompson, 56; Rosewater, 28; Melville, John, 20; Cronin, 40; scattering, 5; necessary to choice, 63.

PASSED.

Bill For Disfranchisement of Illiterates Passed at Annapolis.

Annapolis, Md., March 20.—The new election bill, having for its object, the practical disfranchisement of most of the 50,000 illiterate voters of that state, passed the senate shortly after midnight. It was immediately sent to the house, where all the members of the senate were present, and the bill passed. It is now ready for the governor's signature.

HOT HERRS.

Several Reichstag Members Have a Warm Personal Debate.

Berlin, March 20.—During the debate today in the reichstag over the home office estimates, there arose a heated passage at arms between Herr Hebel, the socialist leader, and other Social Democrats on one side and Dr. Stoecker, Conservative, and others on the other side. The speakers were frequently called to order. Herr Hebel's attack was occasioned by criticism yesterday on the part of Dr. Stoecker. The discussion continued for several hours and was very heated. Dr. Stoecker, in referring to Herr Hebel's attacks, said the moment when his professional honor had been impugned he had given up his post as court chaplain, whereas Herr Singer had continued his business in spite of the dishonorable conduct of his associate, Herr Rosenthal, and had even become president of his party. The Social Democratic party, therefore, could no longer call itself straightforward. These remarks, which were cheered by the Rightists, evoked violent protests from the Social Democrats. Dr. Stoecker was called to order.

WILL BE KNOX.

Said He Will Be Attorney General.

Washington, March 20.—It is understood on high authority that the president has decided to appoint P. C. Knox, of Pittsburg, to fill the vacancy in the cabinet that will be caused by the resignation of Attorney General Griggs on April 1.

MATCH IS OFF.

The Abbott and Boralma Will Not Race.

New York, March 20.—William L. Marks, representative of John J. Sennel and Jack Roach, representing Thomas W. Lawson, of Boston, met in this city today for the purpose of arranging a match between the trotters, The Abbott and Boralma, but failed to come to terms and the match was declared off. Mr. Sennel insisted on having three out of five heats, to which Mr. Lawson's representative objected, preferring that four out of seven heats should be the conditions. Mr. Sennel said he was not ready to raise his horse, The Abbott, against any horse in the world for $50,000, but three out of five heats, the stake to go to charity.

ANOTHER ONE DENIED.

New York, March 20.—Charles H. Tweed, chairman of the board of directors of the Southern Pacific company, said today that there was no truth in the story that parties representing the Southern Pacific had acquired a controlling interest in the Mexican National railroad, and that the latter property was to be operated as part of the Southern Pacific system.

ADMITTED Goldstein Pleads Guilty to Shooting Magie.

Removed Handcuffs and Shackles Last Sunday.

Removed Handcuffs and Shackles Last Sunday.

If Joseph Goldstein, the criminal who made a murderous assault last Friday afternoon on Deputy Sheriff Frank Magie, wished to convince the officers that he is a confirmed and ingenious crook of the first water, and that he is possessed of a good supply of tricks that it is worth while to look out for, he could not do better than to keep on in his present course.

Last Sunday afternoon, simply because he found his fetters irksome and wished to be relieved of the inconvenience of having steel arrangements clinging to hand and foot, Goldstein calmly proceeded to take them off. He picked four locks in his fetters, and dropped them all in the course of a short time, apparently with the greatest ease. This has never been done before in the history of the St. Louis county jail, and it is a feat that is seldom performed anywhere.

Goldstein, ever since his return to jail after his burst for freedom of last Friday, has been occupying a place in the dungeon, with handcuffs on his hands and shackles on his ankles. Locked hand and foot in this way, and bound in the dungeon where the darkness is so thick that it can be felt, it would not be supposed that he would be a very dangerous man or that he would amuse himself with such a feat. But he did.

Sunday afternoon he was in the dungeon, as usual, and when he had his midday meal he was still shackled tightly. A short time later Harry Brown, a barber, who saw the shooting and who was to be a witness before the grand jury in the case against Goldstein, went in to look at him. The turnkey raised the side curtains of the cell so that Goldstein could look at the inmate, and the jailer nearly fell over it, it is said, when he saw the prisoner. He was very placidly pacing up and down, with not a vestige of his fetters remaining upon him.

Immediately they were put on him again, but Goldstein claimed that he took them off again later. The shackles were of the very best sort obtainable, and very carefully looked upon by him, but a little thing like that did not bother him. The instrument with which he did the work was a bent pin, with which he pleaded not guilty. He will be sentenced in a day or two. After his arraignment this morning "Blackie" approached the court and very quietly said to a later Harry Brown, a barber, who saw the shooting and who was to be a witness before the grand jury in the case against Goldstein, went in to look at him. The turnkey raised the side curtains of the cell so that Goldstein could look at the inmate, and the jailer nearly fell over it, it is said, when he saw the prisoner. THE SITUATION AT PEKIN Cablegrams From Rockhill Indicate That a Solution of the Complications Is No Nearer In Sight Than Before.

Washington, March 20.—Another communication was received today from Special Commissioner Rockhill, touching the complications that have resulted at Peking from the efforts of the various powers to reach a uniform basis for their indemnity claims, but there is nothing to indicate that an agreement has been reached. The Russian government has been definitely rejected early in the negotiations, is not now before the ministers. Although the state department has more than ever convinced that its suggestion, looking to the reference of the entire subject of indemnities to the Hague commission, is the true solution of the difficulty, that proposition has been definitely rejected early in the negotiations, is not now before the ministers. Washington, March 20.—The president was fairly besieged with callers today. Senators Burrows and McMillan, of Michigan, called to file a caveat on the vacancy in the civil service commission created by the death of Mr. Brewer. They have not yet selected a candidate, but believe the place should go to Michigan. Within a short time they expect to recommend a candidate.

Representatives Hitt, Foster, Foss and J. R. Williams of Illinois; Rucker and Benton of Missouri; Jones of Washington and Mine of Wisconsin saw the president on behalf of ex-Representative Rodenberry's candidacy for a place on the St. Louis exposition commission. The contest is understood to have narrowed down to a choice between Rodenberry and Cyrus Northup, of Minnesota. It is understood the commission will be named during the present week.

Senator Hanna, Representative Grosvenor and Representative Dick of Ohio had a very extended conference with the president. They were closeted with him for almost two hours. Senator Foraker called during the progress of the conference, but remained only a short time. The importance of the consultation may be judged by the fact that Secretaries Root and Gage, who had business with the president, after the meeting for some time returned to their respective departments. The consultation between the Ohio delegation and the president covered a number of questions, national as well as state, but was largely confined, it is understood, to the situation in Ohio. At the conference a number of Ohio army appointments and several other appointments were discussed. The president's trip to the Pacific coast also was talked about. The Ohio delegation in congress is to go to San Francisco and be present at the launching of the battleship Ohio, Gen. Grosvener is going to New York tonight to make arrangements.

DULUTH

The assault and battery cases in which the father of Frank Wilson was the complaining witness and four New Duluth young men were the defendants were tried in Justice of Peace Stone's court yesterday, and the trials took up the greater part of the day. James Phelps pleaded guilty and was fined $5 and costs, the whole amounting to $4.45. Ed Phelps, the older brother, entered a plea of not guilty, but the evidence showed that young Wilson could have trounced either one of the brothers singly, so the court decided that both brothers had a hand in the mix-up. Ed was fined $10. On motion of their attorney, H. W. Lanners, the actions against Lawrence and George Bushell were dismissed, as it was shown that they merely stood by and watched one young man get pounded up by three others. They feel that an injustice has been done them by connecting their names with the affair, though nothing was said of their sense of fair play. Ernest and Ed Bushell, whose names are said to have been connected with the disgraceful affair, wish it stated that they had nothing to do with it.

WEST DULUTH BRIEFS.

There was a rumor current in West Duluth this morning that Pat Leahy had wandered into the snow storm of last night, and his friends were worrying for fear that he had been frozen to death. The report is said to have gained ground from the fact that Mr. Leahy failed to report at the usual place this morning. E. H. Martin and others were at the point of organizing a searching party when Mr. Leahy hove in sight and registered.

Through a typographical error it was stated that the West Duluth chapter, E. M., would meet last evening for degree work. The meeting will be held on Friday evening.

The K. O. T. U. tent No. 2, of West Duluth, are planning on their tenth annual ball to be held in the Great Eastern hall on the evening of April 1. Prospects For Building Coming Summer Are Excellent.

Architects, Contractors
and Material Men
All Busy.

Some Residence Contracts
Let--Other Contracts
Pending.

Unless there is a great slump in present intentions, there will be a large amount of building the coming year. Every architect is busy, every contractor is equally so and every supply man reports the same condition of affairs. The bulk of the building will be in the line of residences, but there will be a number of flat buildings put up and a few business blocks.

The excellent demand for houses to rent has led many property owners to contemplate the improvement of property that at the present time is yielding no revenue. It is difficult at the present time to get anything in the way of a house and May promises to develop an even more congested condition. Next fall will see a little better condition of affairs if the building that is now contemplated goes through.

The McKay hotel, which is to go up opposite the federal building, will be one of the largest to be built this coming year. The bids were opened a few days ago, but the building was not yet awarded. Bids were also opened a few days ago for the erection of the flat building which is to be built on West Second street between Lake and First avenues, but the contract has not yet been awarded. This building is to contain three flats and is to be very modern and complete.

The contracts for two residences in the East End have been let within the past few days. T. Nauffts will build the W. J. Suffer residence at the corner of Superior street and Sixteenth avenue east. Campbell & Smith will build the residence to be erected by Charles Lutes at the corner of Twenty-first avenue east and Third street. These two dwellings will cost about $5000 each and will be very handsome.

There are a number of other building projects under way, but which have not yet reached the point of realization.

THEY ESCAPE.

Two Young Girls Flee
From an Avenue
Resort.

In a freezing, whirling, driving blizzard—acutely clad in expensive goods, cut extremely delectable, and nothing on their feet but slippers—two young girls escaped from a St. Croix avenue resort at 4 o'clock this morning and tried to find their way to police headquarters. The snow storm was blinding, and they lost their way, but a woodsman found them, and with considerable difficulty succeeded in getting them to headquarters.

They told the police that they were tired of fast and furious living and wanted to go back to their homes in St. Louis, Mo., but that they had practically been driven out of the resort. They said that the landlady had taken their street clothes from them, and they had nothing to wear in making their escape except the thin, low-cut gowns which they had on when they were taken to the police.

On further questioning by the police, they said they had been induced to leave St. Louis by a man who had offered them a large sum of money to act as a mistress and to live in a house of ill fame. They said that they had been taken to the resort by a man who had offered them a large sum of money to act as a mistress and to live in a house of ill fame.

It was arranged to place them both in the hands of proper authorities until their families in St. Louis can be communicated with, and this afternoon an officer was sent after their trunks.

One of the girls is only 18 years of age. The police do not care to give out their real names.

CHEAPEST GRAIN ROUTE

Will Be Through the Georgian Bay Canal.

New York, March 20.—The largest exploitation company in England, made up of the bankers of London and Paris, headed by the Rothschilds, according to a Times special from Toronto, has secured control of the Georgian Bay Canal company and will go on with the work as a private enterprise. If it cannot insure the Dominion government to guarantee the $20,000,000 of bonds.

Its representative in this city says that the chances of making the Georgian bay and Ottawa river canal the link to the largest transportation system in America are good.

Detailed engineering reports have been prepared showing the possibility of making the Georgian bay and Ottawa river canal the largest and cheapest grain transportation system in America. Practically, the scheme is to bring grain from Chicago and Duluth to the Georgian bay, up the French river to Lake Nipissing, and down the Ottawa river to Montreal.

They said that he was a poor officer and that he was not doing his duty. They said that he was a poor officer and that he was not doing his duty. Looking distinctly miserable, disfigured and disconsolate, two highway robbers huddled together in the city jail this morning and told each other how they happened to fall by the wayside. In the blinding blizzard last night, when pedestrians had to hold their heads low in walking against the wind, highwaymen were enabled to get right to a victim before the latter knew there was anything wrong. Two thieves endeavored to take advantage of the unfavorable weather conditions, but they were thwarted by a constable who was on duty. The constable, who was on duty, saw the robbers and immediately called out to them. The robbers, who were on duty, saw the constable and immediately called out to them. ACTION NEEDED

A Demand For Carrying Out Grand Jury's Recommendations.

Feeling That Commissioner Kauppi Should Be Included.

Proper Action Is to Petition the Governor.

In its vigorous report of two members of the board of county commissioners, Ole Berg and Charles Kauppi, the grand jury has raised a question that is proving of great public interest. The sentiment seems to be that in the face of the severe condemnation of these men by the grand jury, something must be done with them, and the disposition seems to be to follow out the recommendations of that body and remove them from office. The grand jury only recommended the removal of Berg, but he was singled out simply because he is chairman of the committee on poor and poor farm. Charles Kauppi is also condemned, and the feeling is strong that if Berg is to go Kauppi should follow him.

The ground on which the removal is asked that the members of the poor committee are either strangely ignorant of what has gone on regarding the expenditure of the poor fund, or criminally concerned in the wasteful use of that fund. Giving them the benefit of the doubt, and saying that it is only ignorance that has blinded them to the waste that the grand jury has found to be in progress, the demand that they be removed still holds good, for in either event the taxpayers are losers.

Under the provisions of the constitution, the grand jury does not make public the details of extravagance and waste that it learned, which is to be regretted, but if there is such waste it should not be difficult to get at the evidence and lay it before the governor with petition for the removal of these two commissioners.

Another member of that committee is Commissioner Patterson, who has only been in office since the first of the year. Since he came in there has been a revolution in the methods of doing business on that committee. He has been instrumental, aided by his former partner, who is not a member of the committee, in putting safeguards on the county property, and he has maintained every expenditure in a manner entirely new to the administration of the poor fund. He can probably be depended upon to hold the committee level, but the sentiment in regard to this is that it is hardly worth while to have county commissioners that it is necessary to hold level. The other member of the grand jury, William Williams, is not now a commissioner, Ed Patterson having succeeded him.

The manner of procedure in carrying out the recommendation of the grand jury in regard to removal is to submit the charges with the petition. The governor then appoints a committee to hear evidence, for the accused parties must have a hearing. When the evidence is submitted to the governor, he determines whether or not the accused parties should be removed.

"If any action is taken," said a prominent business man today, "Commissioner Kauppi should not be neglected, for though the grand jury did not urge his removal, he is equally guilty with Commissioner Berg. It is time that some action be taken, for it must not be said that public officials can be careless or criminal in the discharge of their duties and escape with a little scolding. There are too many from whose backs scolding will run as water from the back of a duck. Nothing short of the strongest methods should be used, for the sake of the example to other officials, present and future."

One of the great complaints is the almost absolute ignorance of the county commissioners as to the property at the poor farm. It would seem that Overseer Rockwell had been left in absolute control of everything there with no accountability to anyone. The consequence is that it is expected that it will be very difficult to prove any unlawful taking of property, for it cannot be shown, unless the board knew something about it, whether the county had any property at the poor farm or not. There is no more important office in the county than that of county commissioner. The county board has absolute charge of every expenditure made in behalf of the county. It has absolute charge of every dollar's worth of property owned by the county. When neither expenditures or the condition of the county's property are scrutinized closely enough by the commissioners to enable them to know whether honesty and prudence is being used in their disposition, the sentiment that vigorous action on the part of the public is needed would seem to be justified.

It has been charged, and it is true it should not be difficult to prove it, that certain county commissioners have been in the habit of issuing blank poor orders, leaving the beneficiaries to get whatever they wanted on these orders. In some cases fancy goods have been purchased. It is said, though in most instances the grocers were induced to fill in their bills with items of necessities so that the waste of the poor fund should not show up in the accounts.

Easter gloves

EVERYONE should have new gloves for Easter. To have your costume complete, your appearance perfect, your allegiance to fashion true, your gloves should gracefully fit your hand and harmonize with your gown. In selecting Easter gloves, above all others, you should exercise the greatest care, and for this very reason you should never buy them of a secondary glove dealer. The Glass Glove department is farther ahead this season than ever with fashionable gloves. The center of all styles is Paris, and remember that this is the only firm in Duluth that imports gloves direct from Paris.

Fownes' La Tosca Kid Gloves—in all the light and dark colors—with the newest Paris stitched backs and pearl clasps to match the color of kid. BERG AND KAUPPI.

The report of the grand jury on the gross mismanagement of the poor fund

and the poor farm has opened the eyes of the people to the scandalous state of affairs for which several members of the board of county commissioners have been responsible. There is a very general sentiment that some decisive action should follow the recommendations of the grand jury and steps should be taken that will prevent a continuance of the loose methods of conducting the county's business and put a stop to what are mildly termed gross irregularities. The grand jury has found indications against the former overseer of the poor farm for converting to his own use property belonging to the county, but his alleged peculations are but a small matter in comparison with the gross irregularities on the part of these who controlled the poor fund.

The grand jury declared that the offenses of Commissioners Berg and Kauppi have been almost indelible and that both have displayed gross incompetence with reference to the county's business, showing that they are absolutely unfit for the positions they occupy. The immediate removal of Commissioner Berg from office is urged

by the jury, but there is no good reason why Commissioner Kauppi, who is equally culpable, should be permitted to retain his seat on the county board. It has been clearly demonstrated that he is an unfit man to be placed in a position of so great responsibility, and it is evident from the grand jury's report that there were sufficient facts placed before it to justify the county in calling upon both Berg and Kauppi to show cause why they should not be removed. No doubt the matter will be brought at once to the attention of Governor Van Sant and the necessity of acting upon the grand jury's report and recommendation be pointed out to him.

JOB FOR THE FOOL-KILLER.

Ada is the feminine name of a little city in the state of Ohio. Ada poses as an educational center; at least it is the seat of a normal school. Recently a fund was raised to purchase works of art which are supposed to exert a civil-izing influence by their mere appeal to the esthetic in human nature. The committee in charge of the funds secured a statue of Apollo. Belvidere,

Apollo appeared in his usual regar-

dant—a far-away look and a fig leaf.

Now, Apollo is in the habit of appearing in the best society dressed thus. He has been known to occupy the most conspicuous places in the room where the ladies of wealth, culture and modesty

were wont to congregate without turning a hair. But the ladies of Ada are differently constructed. They saw something in this marble presentation of the Greek god which disturbed their tranquillity. They saw the total lack of modesty in his attitude. They saw the total lack of shamelessness in his undergarment. His presence was demoralizing and his influence demoralizing. He must have a suit of clothes. Accordingly a tailor was found, who for a consideration, shaped a pair of knee breeches

to the manly legs of the god. The figure was made of the finest material. The

Whether the modest ladies of Ada insisted that Apollo should wear an undergarment, a "billed shirt," or whether they allowed him to hold his bow unincumbered, the world has not yet been enlightened. Think of it! Apollo in red knee breeches. Where, O! where is the fool killer. There is need for him in Ada, Ohio.

But was not a New Jersey school board that banished Longfellow's

"Launching of the Ship" from the public schools as being immoral in its tendencies? Did not another school board in Philadelphia vote to exclude

Hugo's "Les Misérables" because it was vulgar and had a tendency to degrade the morals of the young? The board of the Philadelphia school

purpose is to gull the merchant and the small trader out of his well-earned profit by inducing him to enter an advertising scheme which will be of no earthly benefit to any but the projector.

His devices are as varied as his veracity is limited. He is usually a liar and the truth is not in him. He may come from

New York, representing the "Journal of Commerce," "The Real Estate Investor,"

or some other equally euphonious publication. He proposes to write up the city and fill the edition with wonderful half-tones of the public buildings, the leading business houses and the prominent citizens. For a consideration, which he names, he agrees to add a personal write-up, either of your business or,

should you prefer, of your personal career. Many men bite. The edition comes out and is delivered about town,

when lo! there is found among the most prominent men of the city many whose

FLOODED.
People at Portland, Mich.,
Removed From Homes
to Boats.

Portland, Mich., March 21.—A huge ice gorge in the Grand river a mile below
this place backed up the water until, at 2 o'clock this morning, it was found necessary to sound the fire alarm to summon aid for residents on Water street, who were penned in their homes.
Mrs. Mary Marcy was taken from her residence in a rowboat after calling frantically for help from an upper window, with the gorge breaking suddenly it is feared that the electric light plant will go out, as well as the waterworks. Every cellar on the west side of the principal business street is flooded and damage will be heavy.

GUTTED.
Five Story Chicago Building Damaged By the Flames.
Chicago, March 21.—A 5-story building at 305 Randolph street, occupied by R. Williamson & Co., wholesale dealers in gas and electric fixtures, was gutted by fire early today, causing a loss of about $65,000. Fanned by a high west wind, the flames for a time threatened to destroy the entire block between Fifth avenue and Franklin street, but were controlled after several hours' hard work. The fire started on the third floor of the building and was presumably caused by crossed electric wires.
DENIED BY WOLCOTT.
Washington, March 21.—It is stated on high authority that former Senator Wolcott of Colorado is not to succeed Secretary Hitchcock as the head of the interior department, as published this morning. Secretary Hitchcock, when shown the item, said: "So far as I am aware, there is absolutely no foundation for the story."

RUSSIA AND GREAT BRITAIN Finally Agree. Question of Title to Be Settled Later.

London, March 21, 4:51 p. m.—In the house of lords today the foreign secretary, Lord Lansdowne, announced that Russia and Great Britain had agreed to withdraw their troops from the disputed territory at Tien Tsin and reserve the question of title and proprietary rights for subsequent examination.

Lord Lansdowne supplemented the announcement by explaining that the dispute concerned an extensive area on the left bank of the Ho river, which the Russians occupied in the autumn and claimed by right of conquest. Subsequently the government was informed that China and Russia had reached an agreement placing the area under Russian occupation. The area, however, comprised plots belonging to the Northern Chinese railroad, and was therefore part of the security of the British bondholders.

The line was part of the railroad recently transferred by the Russians to Field Marshal Von Waldersee, who resided in the British. The necessities required the construction of the line siding on one of the plots referred to,
and the presence of British workers on the plot was treated as a trespass on Russian territory. It was subsequently alleged that the Russian boundary marks had been removed by British soldiers.

In these circumstances the government, March 18, telegraphed to its representative in China that it thought the rights of the British or Russian troops to occupy the disputed points could be best settled by Field Marshal Von Waldersee, as the commander-in-chief, and Gen. Gaselee (the British commander) was instructed to request him to settle the dispute. The differences, reserving for future examination the question of the validity of the alleged private rights, Gen. Gaselee was also instructed to refrain from using force, except to repel aggression.

Tien Tsin, March 21, afternoon.—The situation here remains unchanged. Both British and Russians abstain from any acts of hostility. There are about 1000 white British troops in the vicinity.
The Russians are not numerous.
It is rumored that French detachments at Yang Tsung and Lang Fang have been warned that they may be wanted at Tien Tsin.

London, March 21.—The more staid afternoon papers, with recollections of the earlier Chinese exagérations, decline to credit the British or Russian troops from Tien Tsin and Shanghai. They believe the Tien Tsin difficulty will be readily solved by the French. They are satisfied that the French are reliable to the suggestion in the Shanghai dispatch that the Russian squadron has

CARNEGIE IN ENGLAND

The Great Steel Master Talks of Libraries, His Workingmen, The City of New York and Chinese Affairs.

Southampton, March 21.—Andrew Carnegie, who arrived from New York on the last night, was interviewed here today.
Mr. Carnegie expressed surprise that his countrymen in the United States should libraries had caused anything of a sensation. Two of the many cablegrams re-American liner St. Louis at a late hour collected upon his arrival at Southampton were to the effect that Carnegie had these cablegrams was from Mayor Van Wyck of New York, the other from the workmen of Pittsburgh conveying thanks for the recent large donations. The cablegram from the workmen of Pittsburgh evidently gave Mr. Carnegie the greatest satisfaction. "It was a pleasure to make both of these gifts," said Mr.
Carnegie in a respectful answer to the excited press. "But I think my contribution to the workmen of Pittsburgh to be of much greater importance than the donation for the New York libraries, as the workmen are always ready to receive my sympathy. I had no idea that my bequest for the benefit of the New York libraries would be regarded as in any way extraordinary. I am glad to hear that so many cities have already been offered for these libraries and I am not surprised to learn that Abraham S. Hewitt is among those offering sites for the libraries. Ex-Mayor Hewitt is the noblest Roman of them all, and I am anxious for him to come to Skibo Castle. In fact I had determined not to aid Cooper Institute until Ex-Mayor Hewitt comes to Scotland. I regard this gift as sufficient to provide for New York's present needs in the way of libraries, but she is a great city. The population of New York has increased 25 per cent during the past decade, while London has not increased more than 10 per

NOT YET DECIDED

Itinerary of President's Western Trip Is Still Incomplete.

First Stop at New Orleans After Leaving Washington.

Sail By Steamer From Duluth to Buffalo
Probable.

Washington, March 21.—The president's proposed Western trip is attracting much attention in the states
through which he is to pass, and invitations from various cities and towns which hope to entertain him along the route are daily arriving at the White House. Today Representative Meyer of Louisiana presented to the president the formal invitation of the governor of his state and the mayor and citizens of New Orleans, to stop at New Orleans.
The president received the invitation very cordially. New Orleans probably will be the first stop after the party leaves Washington, and the president agreed to remain there a day. Gen.
Meyer says the program for the entertainment of the presidential party is yet to be arranged, but that it probably will include a ride on the river, a drive through the city and a banquet in the evening. As it is the present intention to leave here April 30, May 2 may be probably spent in New Orleans.

Representative Burleson of Texas saw
the president and invited him to visit Austin on his way through Texas. The president promised to do so if the itinerary could be arranged so as to include the Texas capital. Secretary Cortelyou has been working on the itinerary, but practically nothing of a definite character has been decided upon. After leaving New Orleans the party will stop at Galveston and Houston, and the present expectation is that a meeting with President Diaz of Mexico will be arranged at El Paso.

The trip through California will include a visit to the "Big trees." At San Francisco the party will stop a week in connection with events attending the launching of the battleship Ohio. On the return trip over a northern route
the party will visit Yellowstone park and thence probably take a run down to Denver. A sail by steamer down the great lakes and thence to Buffalo also,
probably, will be included in the trip.

After the president returns from his Western trip, he is going to New England. He already has accepted an invitation to be present at the Harvard commencement exercises at Cambridge, Mass., June 26. He also is expected to visit Worcester, Concord, Boston and perhaps other places.

COLLISION.

North German Lloyd
Steamship In Contact With Schooner.

New York, March 21.—The North German Lloyd steamer Lahn, which arrived
today from Bremen and Southampton, was in collision with an unknown four-masted schooner at 2 o'clock this morning, when about nine miles east of Sandy Hook lightship. Capt. Pohle reports that while proceeding at moderate speed the weather being smooth and rainy, he observed a vessel ahead and supposing her to be a pilot boat the steamer burned a flare which was answered by the vessel. The vessel evidently was a four-masted schooner lying at anchor, struck the bow of the vessel, and the collision was so violent that the schooner quickly cleared the bow of the steamer, carrying away three davits, smashing
the bridge stanchions and breaking the rail
of the hurricane deck aft of the bridge.
The steamer quickly cleared the schooner and lay by for nearly two hours. The schooner showed no signals and apparently suffered no other damage than the loss of her jibboom. The steamer then proceeded.

HARMONY.

Foreign Ministers Seem to Be Making Some Progress.

Peking, March 21.—Noon.—The ministers are working in perfect harmony
and everything is progressing satisfactorily.
One question remaining to be decided are the nature of the guards along the line of communication with the sea and the army matters, the generals will decide and report their decision to the ministers.

THE SCHEDULE.

Will Be Adopted By Ball
Magnates at Once.

Philadelphia, March 21.—When the American league baseball magnates went into executive session today, the most important business for their consideration was the arrangement of the schedule.
There appears to be little dissatisfaction over the schedule as fixed by President Ban Johnson and nearly all of the officials stated that the schedule would be adopted after the afternoon. President Johnson said today that it had been decided to withhold the list of players would be made public.

FLOODS AT SEVILLE.

Seville, Spain, March 21.—Guadalquiv river has overflowed and inundated the docks here. The surrounding country is submerged, houses are isolated and the police are rescuing their occupants in boats. Traffic on the railroad to Algeciras has been interrupted for three days.

LAYBOURN

Not Accused By Jacobson of Corrupt Action.

Specifically Stated Lay-
bourn Was All Right.

St. Paul, March 21.—(Special to The Herald.)—The statement telegraphed to
The Herald yesterday afternoon that Mr. Jacobson, the member from Lac qui Parle county, had accused Mr. Lay-bourn, of Duluth, in the house of being influenced by corrupt or dishonest motives in his opposition to the gross earnings bill was absolutely incorrect. The mistatement was due to misapprehension of Mr. Jacobson's excited remarks after the vote was taken, referring his bill to the tax commission. Mr. Lay-bourn was not accused of wrong-doing by Mr. Jacobson or any one else. On the contrary, Mr. Jacobson stated specifically that Laybourn was all right, and had always been a consistent opponent of his measure. There was much confusion and disorder in the house when Jacobson was speaking, and it was difficult to hear him, and when he charged corruption it was thought he was referring to Laybourn, of whose opposition to the bill he had just been speaking.
Mr. Laybourn is held in the highest personal esteem by both friends and opponents of the gross earnings bill, and there is not the slightest suspicion as to his conduct in connection with it.
Laybourn and Jacobson were the leaders in the debate on the measure, and much of the credit of the reference of the gross earnings tax question to the tax commission belongs to the Duluth representative.

JOLLY FROM CUMMINGS

Colonel of Infantry in Philippines Says the Food
Furnished By the Government Is Exceptionally Good.

Washington, March 21.—The war department has received a number of commendatory communications from commanding officers in the Philippines regarding the rations for the army there.
A suggestion made that the allowance of sugar be increased has been already acted upon by the commissary department, and this is about the only change recommended. Col. Cummings, commanding the Twenty-seventh volunteer infantry, in a communication to Col.
Woodruff, chief commissary at Manila,
says:

"There has not been a day since their arrival that my men have had full and complete rations, with unusual allowance of fresh beef and mutton, and except while on scouting duty, an abundant supply of fresh bread, which seems to trouble some of our inexperienced friends at home. I can only advise that they study carefully the functions of the different classes of foods and use up their muscular tissue and energy for a few months in climbing mountains and making forced marches, and when they were without rations, when they could loudly their systems will clamor for fresh meat and bacon."
"It is true natives eat little meat, but it is because they cannot get it."
"As to the sales department, I do not think it could have been much better complete. Everything was provided that thoughtful supervision could suggest for the welfare and comfort of both officers and men."

Col. William R. Grove, commanding the Third infantry, in a communication to Col. Woodruff, says:
"I have the honor to state that the quality of the rations and sales stores furnished the Thirty-sixth infantry by your department has been of a uniformly superior grade. Although we have been almost constantly moving,
there has never been a time when we
were without rations, when they could be carried by or be brought to us, a fact which must be a source of gratitude to the commissary department. The quantity of the rations, as now supplied,
has been to my experience sufficient and well proportioned, and the sales stores have usually been obtainable in liberal quantities. I have no criticism to make nor suggestions to offer."

HIGH RATE FOR WHEAT

Trunk Lines Will Start Freight on Wheat From Buffalo at Much Higher Rate Than Last Year.

New York, March 21.—The Journal of Commerce says: It has been definitely decided by the New York trunk line managers to maintain for another year the so-called pool on ex-lake
grain which comes East from Buffalo.
It has also been decided that rates much higher than a year ago, new figures which will go in effect with the opening of navigation being 4 cents per bushel for wheat, 3 1/2 cents per bushel
for corn and 3 cents per bushel for oats.
It has also been decided that Frank Harriot shall continue chairman of the grain commission. The percentages established by Mr. Harriot for the new season, will not, it is understood, be far from the following: New York Central (including West Shore) 65 per cent;
Erie, 25; Lehigh Valley, 16 and Lackawanna, 4.
The arrangement absolutely abolishes
all New York competition, except to the small extent that the Erie canal
may be called a competitor and places
the New York roads in a position where they only have to consider Philadelphia, Baltimore and Virginia ports in naming their rates. The Pennsylvania road, which brings its grain from Erie, on the lakes, will act in perfect harmony with these roads.

GENERAL STRIKE

Will Be Called at Marseilles
In Sympathy.

Marseilles, March 21.—The council of the labor union and the labor exchange have decided in favor of a general strike and have issued an invitation to all unions to quit work in support of the striking dock laborers. The harbor watermen, the soapmakers and the street car employes have resolved to strike unless the claims of the dock laborers are considered.

Transvaal and Orange River colonies, is as follows: George V. Fids, secretary of administration; Mr. Duncan, secretary of the treasury; Richard Solomon, attorney general; Sir Godfrey Y.

THE DAKOTAS.

Cashier of Plankinton
Bank Has Voluntarily

Plankinton—Cashier Frank L. Stevens of the defunct Plankinton bank, who has been in hiding for nearly a year and a half, reached home Wednesday evening. His coming is voluntary. He is ready to stand trial and take the consequences. Ball bonds properly executed are now in the hands of the authorities ready to be approved by the clerk of the court. The trial will come up at the regular term in September next.

Huron—The work of stretching a telegraph wire for commercial purposes between Minneapolis and this city is progressing at the rate of about twelve miles per day. Workmen are now several miles this side of Tyler, Minn., and as soon as Huron is reached a wire for the same purpose will be run to Aberdeen, Watertown, and other places. These wires will connect at larger towns only.

During the month of February there were received at the government land office in this city forty-four homestead entries, embracing 465 acres, two reservoir filings, and ten homestead and two timber culture final proofs, embracing 221 acres, making a total of 686 acres for the month.

On Friday Mrs. Joseph Buckley sent a pin of boiling water on the floor of the family residence, in Liberty township, and went to the well to get a pull of cold water. While absent her 2-year-old child fell into the hot water and was badly scalded that she died Sunday.

The arrest of Mrs. John Landon and subsequent detention of the powers upon insanity that she is insane, has furnished an unusual case for the courts.

The annual report of the state superintendent of public instruction has been sent out. It shows that there are 18,500 school children in the state, the sending of the schools being 19,742.

Chamberlain—The Missouri river at this point has cleared itself of floating ice to such an extent that freighting by boat between shores is again under way. So much stock has been held waiting to cross that the Pontoon Bridge company has been rushed in getting in readiness to handle the business.

NORTH DAKOTA.
Fargo—The supreme court will hold a session in Fargo next Tuesday, under the new law which requires that the body be held at stated intervals in different towns of the state instead of at Bismarck all the time as was the rule for a year or two. Chief Justice Wallin and Justice Morgan are in the East. Mr. Morgan is expected home in a day or two to be ready for the term.

Devils Lake—A decision of much importance to volunteer soldiers in the late war, just made by the commissioner of the general land office at Washington, reached here yesterday in the matter of the homestead of Nels Peterson, who died on a homestead just prior to enlisting for service in the Spanish-American war. The states and went to the Philippine islands without making any improvements on his land. He served in the army about fifteen months, and after his return built a small house on the land, then submitted communication as proof on the land, only living thereon two or three days. The registrar and receiver, John W. Maher, of this city, appealed the case to the commissioner at Washington, who holds that the registrar and receiver erred in holding that Peterson's time of service in the army should not be allowed as residence and cultivation on the land for the same time that he served, even though he had no house on the land.

Jamestown—A hearing was had in the divorce case of Mary Darling vs. Charles Darling Tuesday afternoon. The case was held in the morning, but the plaintiff, Mary Darling, failed to appear on the part of Darling, the defendant telephoned that he would like to testify. The case was adjourned to give him a chance to tell what he may know.

Jamestown is being used as a distributing point for Western fruits and many carloads are being received. The mission houses save freight by this course.

EIGHT PARTS.

Proposition of United States For Division of Lump Indemnity.

Washington, March 21.—Another and later advice from Mr. Rockhill, our special commissioner at Pekin, is of a more hopeful tone than those immediately preceding. For it indicates that the subject of indemnity is being discussed with apparent disposition to reach a favorable conclusion. Proposition looking to the agreement of the powers upon a lump sum for indemnities, fixed by the ability of the Chinese to pay without destroying the government, seems to be growing in favor. But the difficulty is that while perhaps the majority of the powers, even all of them, might be induced to accept the principle of thus gauging the burden to the strength of China, they are far from unanimous as to the method of distribution of this money among themselves.

So far, though no less than three schemes of valuation have been considered at Pekin. It has not been possible to secure adoption of any one.

Without displacing the pending proposition, the United States government has advanced another and a radical proposal, namely: To divide the total indemnity collected—say $200,000,000—into eight parts, of which the United States should receive one. It is true that the powers are represented at Pekin, but at least two of them have no foundation for a claim for indemnity. This suggestion has not been warmly received by those nations which claim to have been put to much more expense than was the United States through the Boxer troubles. But the answer to this has been that in most cases the greater part of these expenses was absolutely unnecessary; that there was no occasion for the maintenance of large garrisons in China during the fall of Pekin, and equally unnecessary and even pernicious were the various expeditions sent to the interior which have been dispatched from Pekin at short intervals ever since that date.

ARGUMENT POSTPONED.
Trenton, N. J., March 21.—Argument in the court of errors in the case to restrain the American Smelting company from carrying out its agreement to absorb the M. Guggenheim Sons' plant was postponed this morning until next Monday, owing to the illness of the counsel in the case.

It was rumored that a woman student was among those killed during the demonstration Sunday. It said that the Sunday demonstrations were organized by a former officer of artillery.
